Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Foley of Vernon drive returned last week from Prairie du Chien, Wis., where they visited son, Dennis, a freshman at Campion high school. Dennis recently completed a model airplane with a four-foot wing spread in the shop program and is playing drums in the school orchestra.

On Sunday the Anthony Foleys entertained a dinner party for daughter, Christine, following confirmation ceremonies at Holy Name church. Christine's cousin, Nancy Emma, served as sponsor. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Dennis.

Eighteen members of the Suburban Riders club were present at Wednesday evening by Mrs. Merritt Bryant at her 13 Mile road home.

Following the white elephant exchange, Mrs. Bryant showed the group how to make moulded sugar Easter eggs.

Mr. and Mrs. George Williams of Marimor drive and their granddaughter, Tonnie Sue Ekhout, were guests of honor at a dinner party hosted by the Williams' daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Ekhout of Spring Arbor drive.

Mrs. Williams served as sponsor for Tonnie Sue's confirmation at St. Bede's church in the afternoon. Birthday festivities honoring George climaxed the evening's activities.

Mr. and Mrs. James Cook were on the receiving end of a surprise housewarming party Friday evening at their home on Northville drive. Some 26 guests, including business associates and wives, planned the festivities starting with cocktails followed with songs, feasts, games, dancing and a catered buffet supper.

Mrs. Philip Diesel of Stellarbar drive entertained a birthday brunch luncheon Thursday afternoon for Mrs. Leo Watson.

Present were Mrs. George Yeo, Mrs. Albert Parkins, Mrs. Marceveau, Mrs. Carl Orndorff.

Beverly Social Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. McClary of Riverside drive have returned from a month's stay in Florida, visiting Orlando, St. Petersburg and Fort Lauderdale. They returned home earlier than usual due to the inclement weather.

Martha, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Crumb of Devonshire road, celebrated her seventh birthday March 4 by inviting several of her friends to a dinner party at her home.

Guests were Stephanie Young, Mary Louise Zimmerman, Kathie Detwiler, Mary Adams, Marcia Edwards, Sandra Gladfelter and sister, Virginia.

Mrs. Crumb's mother, Mrs. J. L. Snoot of Polo, Mo., is a houseguest and also enjoyed her granddaughter's birthday.

Mrs. Gardner Pardee, Mrs. Earl Lowe and Mrs. Edward Berry, Jr. were guests of Mrs. Frank Riecke of Kinross road Friday for lunch and afternoon with a party at her home.

Neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Bassill of Kinross road will miss them and their four children, Rosalie and Nick who attend Derby and Danny and Steve who go to Beverly, when they move to Sycamore, Ill., this month, where Bassill will be in the sales division of Essex Wire.

The Bassills have lived in this community for the past year and a half and their friends and neighbors wish them good luck in their new location.

Michelle Nowicki, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund J. Nowicki of Ambrose road, had seven of her school friends and neighbors help her celebrate her 11th birthday last Saturday. The girls danced and had birthday refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. William Monahan of Marguerite road, accompanied by their daughters, Barbara and Judy, spent several weeks at Miami Shores, Fla. They report good weather and lots of sunshine.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Genard of Locherbie road returned from a vacation at Fort Walton Beach, Fla., where they spent two weeks visiting their daughter and son-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Cookerell. They also made a visit to Pensacola for several days.

PTA Speaker

VALLEY WOODS—The Valley Woods PTA will have as speaker this month Dr. Edward Bantel, Wayne State university, educational psychologist, who will talk on "What Makes Your Child Tick."

Mother and Adopted Son

He's not her own baby, but he's better than nothing. This sums up the attitude of bereaved mother, Tippy, (left) toward her adopted puppy, Tipper. When Tippy's litter of two puppies dies after birth, her family couldn't stand it, and got an adopted son for their miniature collie to mother. Now everyone's happy—from Tipper and Tippy to the Dr. Maurice J. Weiner family, 30600 Lahser, Westwood. Here Mrs. Weiner plays with the pooches.

Dinner Dance Plans Set by Association

SOUTH BERKSHIRES—The special events committee of the South Berkshires Women's association met Thursday morning with Mrs. Upton Brannack at her home on 13 Mile road to make plans for the Spring dinner dance for area residents and guests. The affair will be held in the Hillcrest room at Deben Gables on May 17.

Place cards and name tags will be handled by Mrs. Clifford Wright, Mrs. Donald Rader and Mrs. Donald Salby. Invitations will be prepared by Mrs. Robert Gladfelter, Mrs. Al Zimanski and Mrs. George Pyles. Mrs. Alexander Neel is in charge of orchestra arrangements and Mrs. Upton Brannack will handle tickets.

Group to Meet

BEVERLY—The Beverly-Artesian improvement association held its monthly meeting Monday at the home of Frank Rusak of West Rutland.

Discuss Plans

BEVERLY HILLS—The Beverly Hills No. 3 association held its monthly meeting Monday evening at the home of James Garrity on Kinross road.

Scouts, Brownies Observe Birthday

BEVERLYS—Greenfield school was the scene of a birthday celebration last night for the brownies and girl scouts. In addition to the scrap book they have on display at the community house for the annual girl scout day, the scouts have a new project, a pen-pal project with an American girl scout troop on foreign soil.

Through Mrs. M. W. Arthur, their leader, who has a relative connected with Firestone in Liberia, W. Africa.

There an American troop is located in the Firestone community comprised of daughters of employees coming from Switzerland, Mexico, Germany, Netherlands and America.
