It's No Place to Be

That's the advice of Norm Dehnke, Bloomfield township's police chief, when it comes to any of the township's many lakes. March thaws have taken their toll and to venture on the ice, whether for fishing, skating or just for a stroll, is inviting tragedy.

Dehnke states, Bloomfield Patrolman Henry Juntunen surveys the honeycombed surface of Gilbert Lake. Seconds later he had to chase two young boys off the ice after the youngsters had chanced a walk across the lake.

REMEMBER 1954?

The Thoughtful Buyer in 1954 decided to "wait for prices to come down"—Remember?

He's paying 11% more than the 1954 price for the same house today and 61% more than price 11 years ago!

Yes, we know that the 1958 Buyer is even more cautious today, but we'd like to remind you of what happened before and, we feel sure, will happen again—he'll pay more in 1959 and 1960 than today's prices.

THIS IS A GOOD TIME TO BUY REAL ESTATE!

John Jacob Astor said "The time to buy is the time when others are selling". He did pretty well! We have some excellent values today that we can strongly recommend to those sincerely interested in GOOD VALUES.
