moving...?
even the cave man had problems...

Man had trouble moving household goods even in 8,000 B.C. The cave man valued his stone tablet just as we value our home furnishings today. With Cadillac's careful handling, it is easier to move six rooms of furniture now, than it was to move a stone axe then. Assurance is important in moving — assurance that your goods will arrive quickly and safely at your destination. Cadillac gives you that assurance — whether you move locally, or from coast to coast.
