Conductor is Indispensable Man

Many uninitiated concert roors have quizzically remarked that the members of an orchestra seem to be ignoring their conductor—that they appear to be concentrating on the letter. To seem that they appear to the concentrating on the letter of the letter. To seem in ward of the state of the letter of the letter

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh - mindered to the public of the second "Sound Idea"-But-

"Know what she says? That it sounds fine but that she Hap Wilson is a young fellow or the machine's lap!" on our paper—and crasy about that little daughter of his Sut like all of us he's learned that kide can present problems.

"Every night I have to reade the the some story," he complained. "The most sugary one in the book—about Billy Bumble bee!" So I finally recorded the story on a tape recorder. Showed her how to play it whenever she wants, aggregated the story on tape recorder. Showed her how to play it whenever she wants.
