Two Couples Return From Weekend in Newark, Ohio

A weekend of fun and relaxation was spent recently by Mr. and Mrs. Granville Barker, 931 Brooklawn, and Mr. and Mrs. James Adams, 902 Brooklawn, when they traveled to Newark, Ohio to be the houseguests of Mrs. Barker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leland C. Korb.

Upon arrival Mrs. Korb honored the two couples with a buffet supper for friends. The women enjoyed a few hours the next day in an antique shop and visiting other friends, while the men tried their hand at rifle shooting.

Dinner Saturday night celebrated Korb's birthday. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Carl T. Myer.

On their return, the couples stopped for lunch at Barker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barker in Mansfield, Ohio.

James Adams, 2 was the houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Nutt while his parents were away.

A family birthday party last week honored Douglas Parrish on his 11th birthday.

Invitations requests were outside grilled steaks for his parents Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Parrish, 1021 Norwich, 7-year-old brother, Don and paternal grandmother.

The Troxton Manor homeowners association had its monthly meeting Tuesday evening in the home of Charles Penninger, 1611 Witherbee.

Present to discuss current business were Rutherford P. Hayes, Leo Clougherty, George Whitehead, George Franden, Charles Hooker and Robert Dwyer.
