Tasting French Cooking

In Detroit last week to mark the 300th birthday anniversary of its founder, Antoine de la Mothe Cadillac, were Georges Doustin (left) and Adrien Alary (right). They also stopped in the Bloomfield area to get a sample of real French cooking from Kingsley Inn Head Chef James Gerpue of Paris. Alary is mayor of Castlesarrasin, France, where Cadillac is buried, Doustin is mayor of St. Nicholas de la Grave, Cadillac's birthplace.

Young men's fancies lightly shift
 To golf as Spring begins,
 And lonesome lassies long to lift
 Proverbial rolling pins!

WHY?

Do Broken Mirrors Mean Bad Luck?

Notion that broken mirrors mean seven years' bad luck comes from Romans who believed health changed every seven years. Since the mirror reflected health, or its appearance, breaking it meant broken health for seven years.

Association of mirrors with death had early origin with Narcissus. He fell in love with his handsome reflection in a pool, made love to it, pined and died of frustration. Farther back, primitive man thought this reflection was his soul; shattering it in water injured his soul, soon brought death.

Inquiry Letters Stem from Article

To the Editor:
 The members of the metropolitan activities club wish to thank you for the publication of an article on our club and Vice-President Mrs. Mildred Littleton. As a direct result of the article, Mrs. Littleton has received many letters of inquiry about our organization.

We are sincerely grateful for the opportunity to bring knowledge of the existence of our club to other handicapped persons of the metropolitan area.
