Winter Strikes A Poetic Chord

Dear Editor: Here are some thoughts about a day in winter.

WINTER DAY
Winter morning, dark and frozen, Planes of heath upon the frosty air.
Hook the children schoolward hurrying.
Moods of far around their tangled hair.

Winter noontime—pale and feeble
Creeps the sun across the leaden sky.
Cold its touch upon the garden
Where the gentle ghosts of summer lie.

Winter evening—now the sunset
Reddens glowing cheek and flashing skate;
Bids the pond a transient moment
Bids the darkening night "await."
