

Lathrup Social Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Hatcher of Saratoga recently returned from a month's stay in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. Much of the time was spent in visiting friends they have met on their previous visit there.

Charmel broiled steaks, topped the menu for the dinner party given by the Henry Fibings of San Diego. Twelve guests attended the dinner on St. Patrick's day.

A surprise party to celebrate Stacey Lee Sloan's 14th birthday was given by Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Sloan of Sunburybrook. The party began with dinner and was climaxed by the going to the theatre.

Gratulations, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Poporano of Detroit were there, and a lovely gift was waiting from paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Sloan of Phoenix, Ariz.

Girls who joined in the fun were Terry Peterson, Hana Simpson, Carol Tucker, Nancy Poporano, Nancy Bagatsek, Peggy Veach and Liz Dickerson.

Lathrup Village

MARIAN EILER
ELGIN 6-0772

DOROTHY ZATELL - ELGIN 6-2039

CRANBROOK VILLAGE CAMBRIDGE VILLAGE
OAKLAND HILLS SUBDIVISION CANTERBURY GARDENS

Society Sponsors Potluck Dinner

LATHRUP—April 14 is the date of the Sanctuary society's potluck dinner at St. Bede's church. Each girl plans their own menu.

After the dinner, a fashion show and card party will be held. There will be fashions for children, teenagers, maternity clothes and clothes for older women.

St. Christopher's guild is responsible for the entertainment, while St. Ann's and St. Elizabeth's guilds are handling the dinner. All the ladies of the parish are welcomed.

Subdivisions Elect New Board Members

CRANBROOK VILLAGE—A general meeting of Subdivision one and three of Cranbrook Village was March 12 at Northbrook school.

John Hollywood and Thomas Costello of Cambridge Village spoke on the new Southfield charter. They also took registrations for the coming April election.

Newly elected board members are Rodney Lockwood, T. E. Jolly, Donald Fisher, Robert Greiser and Gilbert Rice.

Troop 158 Tours Greenfield Village

LATHRUP—The girl scouts of Troop 158, an intermediate troop, had an exciting weekend. Each girl was allowed to invite a guest from Greenfield Village and partake of the swimming and other events scheduled.

Squad leaders were Mrs. Carl Trova and Mrs. Gene Peron. Mothers going along to lend their assistance were Mrs. Oliver Hawkins, Mrs. Edmund Viale and Mrs. Charles Russell. There were 25 girls in all enjoying the weekend.

ETIAM ECCENTRIC Page
Thursday, March 20, 1958 3-E

Celebration Plans Completed by Group

EAST SOUTHFIELD—East Southfield neighborhood girl scout association met at the home of Mrs. Albert Fisher of Shagbark road last week. Final plans for the Juliette Low celebration at Lathrup school tomorrow night were formulated.

Right Turn Ban

LATHRUP—Now signs have been ordered for the intersections of Guy place and 12 1/2 Mile road and Bloomfield and 12 1/2 Mile to prohibit right turns for through traffic. A sign now existing on the corner was placed there to prevent visitors to the "Ibba home" in Cranbrook Village from taking short cuts through Lathrup. Lathrup residents may make the turns without penalty.

Time passed too quickly for the 100 pictures, puppets and mobiles were included in the workshop. Sponsored by the Lathrup Wayne State university art workshop Saturday. These young bookbinders started at 1:30 p.m. and clean-up time at 3 p.m. found them reluctant to stop. Woodworking, cloth

PTA as part of a recreation project, the first session was set up for the children. A second session at Wayne will be for parents on March 29.

New Arrival

CANTERBURY GARDENS—David Edward Andrews, III, is the newest member of the Dave Andrews family on Wilshire. David arrived March 15 at Florence Children's hospital weighing 8 pounds, 4 1/2 ounces. David has one sister, Dawn Ellen, 2.

Indiana Visit

CAMBRIDGE VILLAGE—Mrs. H. Bumbach of Shagbark drive left for Hammond, Ind., where she will stay with her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. James Seaver, until after Easter.

Plan Rummage Sale

LATHRUP—St. Catherine's guild of St. Bede's church is collecting household articles, books and clothing for their rummage sale in the Social hall May 16 at 9 a.m. In charge of collections are Mrs. Douglas Watson and Mrs. Martin Hartwell.

'Spring Serenade'

LATHRUP—The Teen club of St. Bede's church is having a spring dance April 26 in the Social hall. This "Spring Serenade" will be records. All teenagers are invited.

ATTENTION RESIDENTS OF LATHRUP VILLAGE
FOR A SOLUTION TO YOUR DOWNSPOUT PROBLEMS SEE THE RAIN-VERT ADVERTISEMENT ON PAGE 5-E

A. L. DOENGES CO.
Residential Custom Builder
COLONIAL RANCH — CAPE COD — FARM
A Good Assortment of Plans For Your Consideration
Midwest 6-1600 - 4084 W. Maple

NITA HARD
MAYFAIR 6-3224

Guest Is Guest Of Evening Circle

FRANKLIN—"Guest" is the mascot for tonight when the Evening circle plays hostess to its sister circles, Fellowship and Friendly, to its own guests brought by members and to a special speaker, Edgar A. "Bud" Guerin.

The meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Bailey of S. Greenbriar road and the hostess committee includes Mrs. George Howard, Mrs. T. L. Guarnere, Mrs. Arthur Hays, Mrs. Colman Porter and Mrs. Frank Young.

Players to Discuss New Plays Tomorrow

FRANKLIN—Franklin Village Players will meet tomorrow night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Thomas on Franklin road at 8:15 to discuss proposals to replace "Book Set," which was to have been given in May. A play which does not require conventional staging is sought because of the community hall fire.

Franklin
BINGHAM FARMS - WOODCREEK

Flower Workshop Held in Franklin

FRANKLIN—An all day workshop on flower arranging was held Friday at Franklin Community Church for representatives of Franklin, Meadowlake, Walnut Lake, Wing Lake, Shorewood and other branches of the W.N.F.C.A.

Mrs. Frank Webb, Mrs. J. C. Calhoun and Mrs. Herman Kuester, officers of the state organization conducted the workshop and assisted the six representatives from each local branch in practical arrangement.

Mrs. Yvonne Marita, a native of Japan and former of Japanese art forms, demonstrated various oriental techniques and discussed interpretation with the group. The representatives made arrangements and received suggestions from the state officers and two judges from Highland Park, and will in turn instruct members in their own branches at later meetings.

Mrs. Paul Zwickler, Mrs. Henry Art and Mrs. L. R. Zwickler of the Franklin W.N.F.C.A. were hostesses.

Forms Must Be in April 3

FRANKLIN—Franklin's Little League baseball committee announces that plans for the season are formulated and registration forms are being distributed through Franklin and Wing Lake schools. Franklin Hardware and Art Linwood's while to visit Mrs. Franklin Wayne Drugs and must be filed with the committee by April 3.

Organize New Webelos Den

FRANKLIN—Boys from 10 1/2 to 11 years old who want scout training and adventures are invited to join the newly organized Webelos den meeting every Thursday night with Jack Steyskal as leader.

The old far cub scouting and too young for boy scouts, the Webelos will work on scout tenderfoot requirement, and will have six, two-hour meetings this spring at 7 p.m. at Franklin Community church.

Every fourth Thursday they will meet with pack B-11 as a separate den. Boys interested in participating should contact James P. O'Neill or Steyskal.

Blue Birds and Friend

George, the gorgeous skeleton at Wayne State university's school of hygiene and medicine, joined in visiting Franklin Blue Birds when they toured the research laboratories recently. From left, are Jackie Marruco, Charlotte Ellison, Marjorie Mankevitz, Melanie Menrath, Linda Smith, Ann Frank, Louise Pass, Kathy Meigs, Jeanne Rosiello and Phipps Bohne. Blue Bird project this year has been to learn about the kind of job that keeps bread on the table and little Blue Birds in fine feathers.

LIVE IN HAPPY CONTENTMENT

CHARACTERIZED BY QUIET MAGNIFICENCE AT A PRICE YOU CAN AFFORD—$39,500.

3 Bedrooms, 2 1/2 baths, full dining room, screened and covered porch with drops, tacked-down carpeting. Library. Oversized garage. Decorated recreation room in the completely finished basement.

Top construction and condition characterize this Colonial—near Holy Name and Quarton Schools.

This spacious brick ranch is in a peaceful, yet accessible area with city water and sewer.

17' Master bedroom has the convenience of a connecting bath, plus another full bath and a lav. 3 bedrooms. A paneled den has a complete wall of built-in book shelves and storage cupboards, off the spacious kitchen which features various work-saving appliances. The 33' living room has a fireplace. Huge screened porch overlooking the fenced back yard. Paved drive to the big two car garage.

A large recreation room with a fireplace. Here is a custom built house, and it has no equal at $42,500.

BLOOMFIELD HILLS . . .
For you who expect the finest.

6 BEDROOMS, 3 BATHS

Long dressing room off the master bedroom. Fireplaces in the pegged-floor living room and recreation room, which has an adjoining 19' x 20' bar room. Spacious library. Entirely separate dining room. Patio off the breakfast room. Barbecue in the kitchen. Huge screened porch.

Outside barbecue on the grounds which can be completely flood lighted. Finished playhouse and children's swings.

St. Hugo and Vaughn schools. The epitome of the finest. $70,000.

SUMMERTIME SETTING
BIT OF NEW ENGLAND . . . IN BIRMINGHAM

DELIGHTFUL INTERIOR—SPLENDID CONDITION THROUGHOUT.

2 Bedrooms Expandable to three
Fireplace Basement Garage

Walk to the shopping center.

Offered at $18,400—with F.H.A. or contract terms available.

DEFINITE COLONIAL FLAVOR
IN THIS NEW AND BEAUTIFULLY CUSTOM-BUILT RANCH HOME

On a quiet court street near Wing Lake School

Paneled family room has parquet flooring, and a fireplace. Another fireplace in the living room. Built-in oven and range in the kitchen. Three bedrooms, two big baths and an extra lavatory. The two-car garage is attached.

"Pretty as a picture" set apart from other homes on the extra large, near town, country setting. Financing to suit your needs . . . the price is just $36,500.

Watt, Manuel & Snyder, Inc.
Realtors
Birmingham, Michigan
Jordan 6-2323