Commends Stores For Remaining Closed on Sundays

To the Editor: A notice in a card from a local food store reads as follows: "This store, in cooperation with the many churches in this vicinity will be closed on Sundays." Another market advertiser "closed Sundays as usual."

Many of us commend these companies and wish that all business places in the community would continue in Sunday observance. It is to be hoped that we will remember the commandment "six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work."

OUR ROCK AND ROLL generation won't have seen it, and their mothers and fathers probably won't have a dim recollection of the immortal motion picture of the life of Jesus, "The King of Kings." It was Cecil DeMille's first great triumph, has been seen by more than a billion people in the past 30 years. It'll be back in this area again for five days at Easter time. The movie is being brought to Detroit by the Metropolitan Methodist church, 8000 Woodward March 31, April 1 and 2 at 7:30 p.m., Good Friday at noon and 2 p.m., and Easter night at 7:30 p.m. The original picture has been carefully edited in recent years, a number of titles added to modernize it, and a beautiful musical score accompanies it. It's a public showing, and a free will offering will be taken.

A MULTI-MILLION DOLLAR co-op apartment is being planned for Royal Oak on Woodward north of Twelve Mile, reports realtor Eldon G. Wolcott, 18377 Warwick, Westwood. Wolcott is spokesman for a group of private investors contemplating the 210 luxury unit project. He is president of the North Woodward board of realtors. The Birmingham architectural firm of O'Dell, Hewlett and Luckenbach has made preliminary designs, calling for five eight-story tower apartments, each with 12 living units.

LITTLE 5-YEAR-OLD Lynn Louise Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Nelson, 1661 Maryland, was so enthused over spring's arrival last week that she made up this poem on the subject, her mother told this Wanderer:

In the springtime the flowers grow,
In the springtime leaves come on the trees,
In the springtime no ski pants,
In the springtime just a jacket and hat.
In the winter it is ice,
But in the springtime it is nice."

NOTHING LIKE GETTING OFF to an early start! Eighteen Boy Scouts and four fathers from Troop B-25 braved sub-freezing temperatures at the Bald Mountain Recreation Area Saturday night in their first tent camp-out of 1958. A session of close harmony by the fathers and some of the scouts around the post-dinner fire failed to provide the necessary warmth, and the chilled group spent an almost sleepless night. An unexpected difficulty was encountered the next morning when it was discovered that the breakfast eggs were frozen. Scouts attending were Alan Anderson, Roger Chope, Don Feather, Tom French, Larry Gilley, Bob Green, Bruce Green, John Hawley, Dave Kilbury, Walt Lindow, Pete Millington, Rick Nuffer, George Pennell, Jim Piggott, Bob Swanson, Larry Thomas, Tom Tobias, and Jack Trumbull. Fathers were Garth Hawley, Ray Howard, Ken Kilbury, and Ben Robertson.

FOR THE FIRST TIME in history, as far as the Birmingham chamber of commerce can learn, this city will be host to a state convention. The Peninsular State Philatelic society will hold its 20th annual exhibition and convention at the Community House April 12-13. Edwin E. Puls, 185 Linden, Birmingham, president of the society, will be the official host. An attendance of between 500 and 1,000 persons from Michigan and surrounding states is expected.

JON, 2-YEAR-OLD COLLIE owned by the Gordon F. Jaynes, Gilbert lake, owes his life to a quick-thinking vacationing Miami (Ohio) university student, Mike Armstrong, also of Gilbert lake. Somehow the dog, a birthday gift to Jaynes' 14-year-old son, Fred, had wandered out to the center of the lake Monday. The dog broke through the treacherous ice and was trapped in a small pool of water. Seeing the animal's plight, Mike grabbed the Jaynes' boat and broke through the ice to rescue the dog.

Harvard Club Sponsors Concert

Birmingham members of the Harvard club of eastern Michigan will be in attendance at a concert of the Harvard university band, March 31 at 8:00 p.m. at Parvells junior high school, Grosse Pointe Woods.

Tickets for the program can be obtained at the Birmingham Doubleday book store. (Proceeds will go to the scholarship fund of the club.)

Restage Sell-Out To Benefit Kids

The "Oak Park Follies," a sell-out for three performers last January, will be performed again tomorrow, with proceeds to go to the Northville children's association and the Michigan association for emotionally disturbed children.

The PTA members who sponsored the first show are restaging the 90-minute show at Oak Park high school. Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Howell, 554 Merritt lane, Birmingham, are members of the Northville children's association assisting with arrangements.
