B'ham Plan Board Lacks Quorum, Postpones Meet
Failure of the seven-member Birmingham planning board to gather a quorum of four members caused postponement of last week Wednesday night's regular meeting.

The board had invited all property owners who had pending zone change requests to present them at last week's scheduled meeting.

When it appeared that only planning board members Dr. George Marin, Norman Berry and Victor Peck would attend that night, both audience and board left the session at 8:30 p.m.

City Planner Herbert Herzberg said he would check tomorrow with board members. If a quorum can be present, he will schedule the meeting for Wednesday, April 2.
