Come Clean, Baby!

If mother gets sick and it's the maid's day off, these young fathers-to-be have no trouble taking care of Junior. Here they practice up on the bath lesson in an expectant parents' class in the Birmingham office of the Oakland county health department, Jerry Mooney (left) and Ted Nosal try soaping the baby dolls under the supervision of instructor Helen Dwyer. The eight-week courses for expectant mothers and fathers show how to help Junior become a happy and healthy member of the family. They're sponsored in Birmingham by the Oakland county health department, the county medical society, and local adult education departments.
