moring . . . ?

It was a Pioneer problem, too . . .

When hardy settlers opened the vast western territories, they packed their belongings in "prairie schooners" and moved across the nation. A cross-country move was and still is an important decision. Today, with the modern equipment and "know-how" of Cadillac Storage Co., you can move your cross-country or locally — secure in the knowledge that your goods are receiving the thoroughly safe, careful handling you demand. You are assured of the best service when Cadillac handles your moving problem.
