Bloomfield Village
 Mr. and Mrs. James VanHook of Sunnyvale have arrived home following a three-week West Indies cruise and tour of eastern Europe. They sailed from New York on the Ocean Monarch and made stops at Dominican Republic, Cartagena, Colombia, South America, Christmas, Panama and Kingston, Jamaica.
 From Jamaica they returned to New York where they met their son Jim and took a week's tour of New York city, Washington, D. C. and Williamsburg.
 While in Williamsburg they met their nephew, Martin De Haan of Golfview, Birmingham. He is a cadet at Williams and Mary college.
 The island of Jamaica hasn't been the same since three couples of this area combined forces recently and spent two weeks there. Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Terry of Half Moon, Mr. and Mrs. Dugout Yager of Snowshoe circle and Mr. and Mrs. John S. French of Lahr road, Bloomfield Hills, returned from their fabulous trip March 17. Before leaving New York they found their time well spent in seeing "Miss Man".
 In Jamaica they stayed at one of the cottages of the Half Moon hotel on Half Moon bay.
 From here they toured the island and enjoyed shopping. Yager, being with Reynolds Aluminum, enticed the group on a trip to visit the bauxite mines of the island. This is a material used in the making of aluminum.
 This proved exciting in more ways than one. A bright red dust abounds throughout the area of the mines, covering all the houses, buildings and grounds and naturally they found themselves covered too after spending time there. It took five washings to get the red out of their hair but it was fun anyway.
 They also enjoyed watching the loading of the banana boats and several tours.
 Ocean ranch villas at Pompano Beach, Fla. was the chosen vacation spot for a three-week "get away from it all" for Mr. and Mrs. James E. Heaphy of Broadway boulevard.
 They played golf daily at the Plantation golf club at Ft. Lauderdale, swam a lot and thoroughly enjoyed the many evening entertainments.

 They will spend their first week at Pompano Beach at the Vista Del Mar on the ocean.
 From there they will drive to Ormond Beach on Easter Sunday and spend the next two weeks at the Ormond Biltmore where they have spent their vacation for the past five years. The children will be able to visit their grandmother, Mrs. Vernice Johnson, formerly of Detroit, who now lives at Ormond Beach.
 Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Braxton of Woodlawn court and four daughters, Marilyn, Judy, Virginia and Barbara will leave Friday for their sixth annual trip to Florida.
