A cast party was held for the participants in the review of English last Saturday night at the home of Pat Ruby. Guests enjoyed a hot hot supper and talking over the results of the play. This was presented last week on Thursday with all-semester survey English classes in attendance.

Princeton Prep is again presenting a free evening in New York to two lucky Senior boys. These will be chosen by a drawing held this week and will have all their expenses paid for this evening in New York.

Student directories prepared by the school's secondary classes are now on sale. This directory gives the names, addresses, and phone numbers of all those who are enrolled in school. This is a new project and required much work on the part of the classes.

National honor society is in the process of voting on applications for membership. All applicants are voted on by the student members and by the faculty. The initiation assembly will be held sometime in April after spring vacation.

The water ballet will present The Wizard of Oz this Friday and Saturday night at the high school pool at 8 p.m. Tickets are 50¢ for the full school and are 25¢ for general admission and $1 for reserved. There will be solos by Kay Ginter and Carol Decker and a special duet by Carol Williams and Sue Leahy. The rest of the acts are dances, each depicting a scene of the story. In addition to the swimming acts, there will also be a hand play which is based on the Oz story. The production is being supervised by Miss Reed and Miss Stevenson, girls' gym teachers.

Club KST will present a record hop this Friday from 9

Discuss Rules For BHS Trip
By JULIE HOOVER
Students going on the Washington trip and their parents met with Eugene Hubbard, trip director, last night in the gym. Trip rules were discussed and each student introduced his parent's to his advisor. The group will leave for Washington by train April 4 and will return April 11.

Plans are almost completed for the boat shows which will be presented on the trip. Some of the acts are monologues by Nancy Doherty and Rich Ward, a trio consisting of Linda Bliss, Sue Bollinger and Sharon Bell and a novelty kick line with Jan Hershberger as chairman. One of the acts will be "Little Red Riding Hood" in the east are Kent Carlwell, Little Red Riding Hood; Don Bosch, grandmother; Pete Brink, Big Bad Wolf, and Dick Boyd, the hunter.
