

Sorosius Alums Slate Luncheon

Their annual luncheon get-together is slated next week for and Hounds Wednesday at 12:30 members of the Birmingham Alumnae of Collegiate Sorosis. Mrs. Morris Tandy is in charge of reservations.

Speaking of philanthropy, it may be expressed in various forms. One may give away sums of money to foundations, trusts, or people. One may endow a church or a college, or contribute toward a worthy community project. These philanthropies are expressed materially. Yet there is another philanthropy, one of inestimable value. It is shown by the kindly words and acts you give to others.

Saturday Bride Wears Couple Travel To Colorado Chiffon Velvet Gown

Orchard Lake Presbyterian church was the scene of a candlelight ceremony which united in marriage Audrey Patricia Donaldson and Arthur Martyn Kroeger Saturday. The Rev. Edward Auchard officiated at the 8 o'clock ceremony, followed by a reception at Westacres clubhouse.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Donaldson of Union Lake, formerly of Birmingham. Arthur's parents are the Elmer Kroegers of Northville.

Audrey wore a floor-length princess style gown of white chiffon velvet with a sweetheart neckline. Her waist-length veil fell from a Juliet cap of seed pearls. She carried white orchids surrounded by stephanotis.

MARGIE Donaldson was her sister's maid of honor in a swarovski velvet, princess style ballerna length gown with matching hat and muff. She had tainman roses on a muff.

Bridesmaids wore Darlene Verberg, Norma Ballard and Elmore Kroeger. Their ballerna length velvet, princess style frocks were in shades from beige to taffy with matching hats and muffs. They carried yellow roses on their muffs.

Robert Verberg was best man and ushers were William Wright, John Kipley and Joe Wicheit.

Mrs. Donaldson wore a dusty rose crepe sheath with a lace bodice and the groom's mother chose an orchid lace sheath. Both mothers had yellow roses.

The newlyweds are now on a wedding trip to the Eastern States and Washington, D. C.
