Talking Dog Lights Up

CRANBROOK—"Vesta—the first transparent dog in the world" is the billing given to the animal being hinged by a young admirer. Vesta was unveiled at Cranbrook Institute of Science Saturday. Vesta is a female Great Dane who talks, and whose insides light up one by one as she tells about herself. When all the lights go on, she explains her skeletal and muscular systems, then pleads to dog owners for loving care and careful feeding. Put together in plastic in Germany, Vesta will live at the science institute for the next year.

Firemen's Party For Kids Stated

Their annual Easter vacation theatre party for kids is slated again this year by Birmingham firemen. The party is the only fund-raiser for the department—family welfare and recreational benefits.

Sponsored in cooperation with the Birmingham theatre, the program at the theatre features Dana Andrews in "Commander" with shows at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. Wednesday, April 9.

Completes Duty

Lance C. Miner, Jr., has returned to his home, 360 Pleasant, Birmingham, after completing his tour of duty as a 1st Lt. in the U.S. Air Force. He was stationed at the 45th air control and warning squadron, Brunswick, Maine as a senior director.

Recreation Excess View Youth Fitness

At a meeting called to discuss youth fitness, Robert E. Gramdin, recreation director of Birmingham, said that in a busy-building Detroit parks and recreation department, Superintendent John J. Conditine called the session, which viewed ways in which "every met in Detroit last Thursday.
