Butlers, DeWitts Return; Several Families Welcomed

The Wendell Butlers of Burnley drive have just returned home after a two weeks tour of Mexico. They were among the seven couples chosen to host a group of honor award winners of the Ford Tractor division of Ford Motor co. The committee flew to Mexico city a day ahead of the winners, who arrived from all parts of the United States.

The first two days were spent in Mexico city, with the group staying at the Plaza Vista Hermosa. The Cathedral, begun in 1523 and completed in 1811, was one of the highlights. They also witnessed a colorful Mexican wedding. The bull fight was another "must" on the long list of things to see.

The group left Mexico city to spend four days at the Hotel Capella in Acapulco. They were entertained at the lavish night clubs in the evenings and spent their days on the beaches.

Due to the heat of the sun's rays there was a morning beach and an afternoon beach. Mrs. Butler took note of the many sheaths and sacks worn, even in the bathing suits. She was also surprised at the far trimmed bathing suits worn on the beaches.

The group once again returned to Mexico City to spend another week. It was pointed out to them on one of the tours through the beautiful residential sections that the homes were all built on lava beds.

The David DeWitts of Tuthbury road are home again after spending a busy 10 days in the south. They flew to Boca Raton, Fla., to attend the mid-winter meeting of the Federation Insurance council.

Some time ago the David DeWitts and a group of Charwood subdivision couples decided to brush up on their dancing and learn some of the new steps as well. They formed a club which has been meeting in a different couple's home once a month. Mr. and Mrs. George Russell of Southfield, dance instructors, have been coaching the group.

Friday night was the last of the 10 lesson course, and all feel they can now do the samba, rumba, cha cha, tony poky, and a little gittering. Enjoying the evening of fun and the night dancing followed were the Richard Zajacs, the Roger Blackwoods, the William Deweys, the William Heaton, the Elyce Beechers, the Sherrill Simpsons, the William Putts.

For the last two years Charwood subdivision couples have gathered for a potluck supper once a month. On Saturday evening the Tuthbury road home of the David DeWitts was the destination for the William Dewess, the Sherrill Simpsons, the William Heaton, the Douglas Clark, the Emerson Houghs.

The new subdivision of Riverside Meadows just north of the Harlan school has many newcomers from near and far.

Newcomers are the Jon McKinley family of Englewood, Calif. McKinley is radio station manager in Mount Clemens. They have four children, Jon, 13, attending Derby junior high, Marsha, 10, Sandra, 7, and Leslie, 10, attending Harlan. Gardening is a hobby the whole family enjoys.

The new subdivision is centered around Robinhood Circle where the Richard Barnds of Oak Park are enjoying their new home. They have two children, Randy, 7, and Leslie, 10, attending Harlan. Randy is chief stylist with Chrysler Imperial, and is active with Mrs. Barnd in the Ridgedale Players in Oak Park.

They were surprised on a Saturday evening recently when a group of 58 persons of the Ridgedale Players gave them a house warming party. The new home is with fireplace fixtures. Originally the only couple expected for the evening were the E. R. Davies of Bloomfield Hills.

New residents of Robinhood Circle are the Richard Kingswoods of Birmingham. They have a two-year old son, Richard, Jr. Kingswood is active in advertising with the City of Detroit. His hobby is painting and drawing.

A number of Birmingham residents moving to Robinhood Circle are the Richard Oxforde. Their three children are Greg, 8, Kevin, 5, and attending Harlan. At home is Linda, Oxford is an engineer with Jerald Industries in Detroit. Golf and bowling are among their interests.

The Charles Eilers also moved to Robinhood Circle from Birmingham. Eiler is affiliated with Michigan Bell Telephone Co. Their children include, Chuck, Jr., 11, Linda, 9, and George, 8, students at Harlan. The family interests
