Sis "Puts on the Dog"

My paper's got two subscribers—Sis Harper and her brother Rip—out on lonely Sunset Mountain. A road goes by Sis' farm and both copies are mailed to her because Rip lives back in the woods. Sis always ties her brother's copy of the Clarion—plus any mail—to an old hound who trots over to Rip's place. "Rip feeds the dog half of his dinner," Sis explains. "I give him the other half when he gets back. Speeds him along." Thanks to Sis—I bet the Clarion's got the only dog-powered delivery system in the U.S.A. From where I sit, Sis may live in the "backwoods" but she's got a wide-awake mind. Contrast that with some people who refuse to own up there's more than one opinion on any subject—like whether beer or buttermilk makes the best beverage. That mountain air sure keeps those "doggone communication channels" open!
