Retirement Ends Long GM Service Of Bloomfield Man

Roland V. Hutchinson, special assignments assistant to Charles A. Chayne, General Motors vice-president in charge of engineering staff, will retire Feb. 28 under the GM retirement program.

Until August, 1957, Hutchinson, 6600 Forman, Bloomfield township, leader of GM engineering staff's automotive ordnance section of vehicle development group, specializing in design and prototype development of the "otter" amphibious cargo carrier.

A native of England, Hutchinson came to the United States in 1910, after receiving his technical training at Hodder's field and Manchester.

Latest from France

The latest automotive import from France is this Simca, just introduced at Suburban Motors Co., Inc., 565 S. Woodward, Birmingham. The local agency is the first Detroit area dealer for the French car, a 58-horsepower vehicle that gives 37 to 40 miles per gallon and sports a liquid-cooled front engine. Robert Branda, left, Flint resident and president of Associated Designers, Birmingham, purchased the first Simca sold by Suburban Motors. Right is Richard A. Fischer, 2147 Yarmouth, Birmingham, partner in the agency, which also holds the Oldsmobile franchise here.

National recognition as an outstanding producer of life insurance sales has been awarded Thomas J. Bolton, vice-president of M. C. Callahan Agency, prominent Detroit general insurance firm.

Ranking second highest in the United States for new business written, Bolton, 429 Safford, Birmingham, has been awarded membership in the million dollar section and made a vice-president of the 1958 president's club by the Great

West Life Assurance Co. of Winnipeg, Canada. The award is for writing more than a million dollars' worth of life insurance during 1957 in that company's policy.

IN ADDITION, Bolton was named leader of the Canadian company's Michigan branch. He is the only representative in Michigan to win the million designation and the first member of the Callahan life insurance department to be so honored.

The president's club awards are consistently high producers. Bolton's sales of life insurance in force in all companies represented by his agency total more than $30 million.

New York City's most ambitious slum-clearance project, the Lincoln Square redevelopment program, entails an estimated 200-million-dollar price tag.
