at the CHURCH DOOR
By JULIE CANDLER

It happened at a Blue and Gold banquet at Holy Name church. The Cub Scouts were listening to the Rev. Edmund Schwager, assistant pastor at the values of scouting.

"I was never fortunate enough to be a Cub Scout," said the young priest. "Of course," Father Schwager reflected, "it's probably just as well that I wasn't. One because a Cub Scout usually meets a little Brownie and pretty soon they have a pack of their own!"

Something new at St. James Episcopal church—a weekend retreat for youth—is the first one for the church. Rev. Thomas Phillips reports the theme will be "What is Christianity?" at Camp Olyhess near Brighton May 17 and 18.

The ninth through 12th graders will enjoy regular camping activities, as well as discussion groups and services. Mrs. A. Donald Moncrieff and two other adults will accompany them, as well as Mr. J. Phillips. (They'll be accompanying the young people, that is, not Mr. Phillips.)

This one reminds me of something the Birmingham public school superintendent, Dr. Dwight B. Ireland, told me once. Came to mind when I read a release about a Birmingham young man who's now Christian Scientist representative at Fort Carson, Colo.

Dr. Ireland says, "When I read something done well, I ask a busy person to do it. The busiest people, he says, are the ones who organize and budget their time effectively. That's how they can accomplish so much. And can be depended on to get a job done."

THE BUSY YOUNG man at Fort Carson is SP-3 Richard I.

"The Home-Household for God" is the theme of national public week, May 4-11. First Baptist church is emphasizing the week by special services and leaflets on the spiritual and social life of the faithful. They start Sunday at 11 a.m. with a family observance of the observance. Sunday at 7 p.m. an illustrated presentation for all members of the family, "The Land Where Jesus Lived" will be given by Rev. Dr. Joseph I. Chapman of Pontiac, recent vicar of the Holy Land.

Wednesday at 7 p.m. Rev. Francisco Lemus, pastor of the Mexican Baptist church in Detroit, will speak at a church family supper. He will have his own family along, his wife and two boys will sing to his guitar accompaniment. He will speak on his experiences as a household missionary.

SUNDAY, MAY 11, is Mother's day and Mother's day. Partnership will include a service of dedication for infants and parents. That evening at 7 p.m. there will be a film, "Christian Faith in the Family." Mrs. Emil Kontz, chairman of family life, does much of the planning for family week.

Traveler to Tell Of Trip to Japan At St. James Event

Tickets can be obtained at the door or from committee members. Mrs. C. Lyle Bones, Mrs. Cecil Bunch, Mrs. E. P. Brantingham, Mrs. A. Fletcher Plant and Mrs. Arthur Wragby.

Two Ministers To Describe Trips

Two Birmingham ministers will describe overseas trips this week at First Presbyterian church. Rev. Dr. W. Glen Harris will show pictures of the Holy Land at Westminster guild's monthly meeting in the lounge at 8 o'clock tonight. Rev. Ralph Stribo, minister of West Bloomfield Pres by terian church, will describe a bicycle trip through Europe to the Continenters club monthly meeting Tuesday at 6:45 p.m. in the social hall.

Our Lady Guild Sets Plant Sale

The St. Joseph guild of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs church made plans for its May plant sale and installed new officers last week at the home of retiring chairman Mrs. Gerald Murphy.

The sale will be held May 22-24 on the church grounds. Assuming their duties were Mrs. Franklin Pinski, chairman; Mrs. Paul Whelan, co-chairman; Mrs. C. H. Schmidt, treasurer, and Mrs. Howard Gagnon, cancer aid chairman.

Wondrous is the strength of cheerfulness, and its power of endurance—the cheerful man will do more in the same time, will do it better, will persevere in it longer, than the sad or sullen. —Thomas Carlyle

The spiritual sense of Life and its grand pursuits is of itself a bliss, health-giving and joy-inspiring. —Mary Baker Eddy
