10 1/3 ROLLING ACRES

$65,000

The picture conveys little of the lovely interior of this Ranch Home or the beautiful rolling site on which it is erected—most of which could be developed and sold at a very handsome profit. Among its features and accommodations are a paneled living room, full dining room, paneled library, family kitchen, king size bedrooms with ceramic tile bath having both tub and stall shower, 2 fireplace, complete carpets and much, much more.

South Berkshires Social Briefs

Dr. and Mrs. Douglas J. Wood are back at their vacation home after spending a week in Atlantic City, N. J., where Dr. Wood attended the Industrial Health conference.

The couple visited friends in Long Island and were dinner guests of Dr. Wood's sister, Mrs. Doris Knight, in New York City.

There were birthday celebrations galore at the Sam Calley of Elwood drive this past week.

On Friday after school Miss Larry was host to 34 classmates and neighborhood friends at his home who helped celebrate his seventh birthday with games, prizes and party treats.

In the evening 17 dinner guests came for more merry-making. Guests included his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kuehn, his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Perantonia, the Walter Witoszynski family, and brothers, Gary and David.

When Larry's dad, Sam Calley, returned from Canton, Ohio, on Saturday, he was honored with a birthday surprise cocktail party and hostesses, complete with four piece orchestra and two vocalists.

The celebration were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Callia, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Perantonia, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kuehn, Mr. and Mrs. Ridgely Heise, Mr. and Mrs. John Ruggiero, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Witoszynski, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hayball and Calvin Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Richards of Southmore drive announced the birth of a son, Thomas Michael Stephen, born April 18. The newborn was welcomed home by sister, Gail Ann, 20 months, and his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Michael Kolbas of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. William Harrison, Sr., have returned to their Vernon drive home after a two-week vacation in Florida.

The couple stopped in to Lakewood and visited friends in Palm Beach, West Palm Beach, Hialeah, Surfside and Miami.

Mrs. Selwyn Asquith entertained the neighborhood pinocle group at her home on Corvill drive.

Present were Mrs. Milford Finkerton, Mrs. Robert Gladfelter, Mrs. Eugene Lawko, Mrs. Joseph Lokar, Mrs. Richard Priebe, Mrs. William Schwickart, Mrs. Nishon Muradian and Mrs. Victor Zaitz.

Clayton Long celebrated his sixth birthday Saturday by entertaining 12 friends with pony rides at the Ivory Polo grounds and a wagon ride with an eight-horse hitch around the 100 acres.

Returning to Clayton's home on Bermuda lane, the group enjoyed refreshments. Joining the fun were David Zimanski, Jimmie Cook, Mike Spriggs, Scott Bywater, Ray Turner, Dennis Hughes, Fred Ploch, Richard Schubow, Paul Adorno, Jeffrey Coe and cousins, Steven and Randy By.
