Scouts Present Talent Show

LATHRUP — Girl scout troop 457 recently put on a talent show for brownie troops 460, 245 and intermediate girl scout troop 601 in order to qualify for their second class requirements.

Leader of the troop, which presented original skits and dances, is Mrs. Woodrow Nelson and Mrs. Charles Buhler is co-leader.

Cindy Worick, emcee, opened the show with Suzanne Brenner and Joan Delaney who sang "What-ever Will be Will be." Dottie Marr, Candy Booza and Janet Robinson performed in a skit, "I Dream." Gloria Monroe played the piano and Ann Barrett recited an original poem. Taking part in the "Lollipop" number were Ann Plumtree, Janet Shumway and Linda Fegley. Debbie Hobbs did an acrobatic number.

Gloria Quinn and Claire Gotberg pantomimed a record "The Telephone." Judy Jaquillard and Susan Siebold were other program emcees.

Lathrup's Carnival Plotters

Put six heads together and you come up with interesting ideas, as the Lathrup PTA carnival attest. Checking over the results of some "deep" thinking are (from left) Mrs. Carol Payton, Mrs. Connie Farrell, Mrs. Elvira Bull, Mrs. Helen Stewart, Mrs. Joan Deisley and Mrs. Audrey Ash.

Fun for All Promised At PTA's Carnival

LATHRUP — Saturday is spring carnival day at Lathrup school. From 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. the Lathrup PTA has planned a day of fun for the entire family.

Luncheon in a colorfully decorated Italian cabaret—11 a.m. to 2 p.m.—will feature spaghetti and soft music. A snack bar will serve pop, ice cream, coffee, cotton candy and popcorn.

Clowns with balloons and exciting hidden pockets, movies, a fortune teller, games galore with interesting prizes and ride on the red covered-wagon behind a team of mules are planned for the children.

Group to Sponsor Benefit Card Party

CRANBROOK VILLAGE — Pi Gamma Sigma will sponsor a benefit card party at Northland Hospitality house May 6 at 7 p.m. The public is invited and proceeds will go to the Foster Parent Plan. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Donald Severson of Spring Hill drive.

Two Get Petitions For School Posts

SOUTHFIELD — Two Southfield board of education members have taken out nomination petitions for reelection in June. They are Mark W. Rehbine, 25175 Farmbrook road, Southfield, board secretary, and Ernest J. Coverhill, 28402 Woodworth way, Lathrup.

Deadline for filing petitions is May 9. The vacancies are for four-year terms.

At a special meeting last week the board heard a progress report on plans for the new elementary school at Evergreen and 11 Mile road. Plans are being made to take advantage of the unusually scenic setting, which boasts a running stream.

Kiwaniqueens To Meet May 8

The Southfield Kiwaniqueens will meet at the home of Mrs. Steve Spolar, 24500 Lois Land on May 8.

Miss Mary Lou Lake, guidance counselor for Southfield public schools, will give a book review. Assisting Mrs. Spolar as co-hostesses will be Mrs. Cliff Thompson, Mrs. John Grimes and Mrs. Phil LaVigne.

Association Meets

EAST SOUTHFIELD — East Southfield neighborhood association of girl scouts met recently at the home of Mrs. Melvin Groves of Murry Crescent drive. Plans were formulated for an outdoor picnic and cookout for leaders and committee mothers.

Fire Protection Being Planned For Westwood

WESTWOOD — Public Safety Director Robert Murphy Monday told the council that he is investigating a fire training school which will begin in Oak Park which will be next 25 days. The course is to be the same as the training offered by Oklahoma A & M fire school. He said that he plans to hire about 8 men in the 23 to 27-year age bracket as soon as he can set up a training schedule for them.

As soon as a full crew has been hired for the fire station Murphy will arrange for a radio transmitter to be placed in the station with the man on duty doubling on the transmitter.

Murphy also said the village's new police car is now on duty.

Eccentric Award Offered in S'field

SOUTHFIELD — Among awards to be given at the Southfield high school Honors assembly to be held early this month will be the new Birmingham Eccentric award to a boy for outstanding scholarship and citizenship.

In addition to recognition at the assembly, the name of the boy will be added to a plaque to be hung in the school trophy case. The student will be selected by high school teaching staff members.
