Heart Fund to Benefit From 'Basement Fair'

Two ingenious fifth graders from Pembroke school, Laura Griffith and Virginia Van Cleve, recently held a "basement fair" designed after their school's "Panic" so they could raise money for the heart fund.

Included in the fair for friends and neighborhood children was a spook house, make-up bar, rides, game-room and books as prizes. Helping Laura and Virginia in their venture were Stacy Griffith, Winifred Williams, Patsy Irving, Linda Sharrard, Susan Perkins and two visitors from Flint, Ann and Bonnie Schweitzer, former residents in this area.

The event was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Griffith, 657 Coolidge.

A houseguest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sims, 1641 Witherbee, in Sim's mother, Mrs. Edgar B. Sims from Phoenix, Ariz. Highlight of Mrs. Sims' visit was the christening of her 9-month-old grandson, Greg, at the Congregational church in Birmingham on Mother's Day, May 11. Reverend Robert Dewey officiated. Also present was Greg's brother Gordon, 3.

A welcomed newcomer at the
