With Kresge 45 Years; To Return to Birmingham

Russell C. Davies of Toronto, a former director of the S. S. Kresge company and former executive vice president and management director of the firm's Canadian division, retired May 9 after 43 years with the Kresge organization.

Davies, a former Birmingham resident, joined the rapidly growing "five and ten-cent store" chain in 1915 following his graduation from Miami University. His first job was as a stockman, but within seven years he became manager of his first store in Brockton, Mass. In 1925 Davies was appointed manager of a Paterson, N. J., Kresge's and six years later he was promoted to superintendent of stores.

DAVIES WAS assigned to the company's headquarters as a buyer late in 1941, but eight years later he went to Toronto as assistant managing director of Kresge's Canadian subsidiary. He was elected vice president of the Canadian branch in 1949 and less than a year later was elected to the board of directors at the parent firm in the United States.

DAVIES IS A member of several masonic organizations. He has been employed only by the Kresge company. Within the next few weeks Davies and his family will move back to Birmingham, where they will take up permanent residence. Before moving to Toronto in 1941 Davies lived at 917 Glenhurst.
