'Big Top' Carnival Set For Saturday by School

The Eastover school children, parents and teachers are looking forward to their second annual "Big Top" carnival on Saturday with anticipation. There will be much to attract the attention of everyone, beginning at 10 a.m. Under the large outside "Big Top" will be booths sponsored by the girl scouts, boy scouts, brownies and cub scouts. There will be sports car rides, horse and pony rides, and a carousel.

Standing near by for inspection will be a bright, shiny fire truck. A calliope and balloons will add color to the carnival atmosphere. Games like "Sponge throwing" will be awaiting the fun and laughter of all.

Inside the school will be the "midway" with its fish pond, chess games and movies. There will also be plant sales, bake sales, refreshments and the "Clown Alley Treasures" where silent auctions will be held.

Lucky Yee the magician, from Pearl's restaurant in Birmingham, will keep young and old spellbound with his magic tricks and Chinese writing during the day. A puppet show entitled "Jamaal and the Golden Gates" will begin at 2 p.m. and will end when the carnival ends at 4 p.m.

The Lloyd Denisons of Burnley drive are planning a Florida vacation for the latter part of May. They will be visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Agey, Mrs. Denison's parents, in Winter Haven for two weeks.

Upon their return they will leave for Philadelphia, Pa., where Denison has been transferred. His new position will be sales manager with the Yarnall-Waring Co.

A meeting of the Stewardship club of the First Baptist church of Birmingham was held at the Bolingbroke drive home of the Charles Marces May 9.

Guest speaker was Owen Fraser of Jamaica, British West Indies. He told of the beauty of his country. The hostesses were Mrs. Duncan Hudson, Mrs. Lyle Blanchard and Mrs. Homer Pratt, all of Birmingham.

Houseguests at the W. Orchard Hill drive home of the Robert Markers are the Forest Markers of Nashville, Tenn. Markers' parents. They arrived Saturday for an extended visit. Christopher, 8, is their only grandchild.

Judy Conrad, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Cecil D. Conrad of Square Lake road, was a ballerina in the ballet performance in the Arts festival at Baldwin auditorium Sunday. Eugene Panko, Tan, dancing teacher, gave a talk entitled "Technique of Ballet."

The Earnest Coles of Butternut Hill drive and a party of friends motored to Potawatomi inn in Indiana for a four-day vacation last week. The group enjoyed golf, dining and the many other pleasures the Inn provided.

Accompanying the Coles were Jack Loggrens, the Robert Rossiers, the Donald MacKellars, and the Walter Rankins.

Mrs. Donald Smith of Oakhill drive is one of the Delta Gamma members participating in the "Night screening" tests sponsored by the Oakland county health department. May 26 and 27 the group will screen children at the First Baptist church of Birmingham, nursery school.

After Mrs. Robert Schwab of Oakhill drive left to pick up her husband at the train station May 12 a few immediate neighbors made every minute count while she was gone.

With the help of the Schwabs' daughter, Donna, they made ready for a "surprise birthday party" honoring Mrs. Schwab. The scheming couples included the Clifford Mozers, the Tom Bramsons, the Roland Starrs, the James Everetts and the Don Smiths.

The Ellis Arnolds of Big Beaver road have returned home after a three-week vacation in Texas.

Outdoor Concerts

Detroit Symphony orchestra will open its annual nine week series of 57 summer concerts June 10 in the Music Shell at the Michigan State Fair Grounds. Programs will be presented free to the public each Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evening at 8:15 through August 9.

Extend Bond Time

Charter members of the Birmingham Athletic club met recently at the Little Theatre of the Birmingham high school. The group voted on the extension of the bond time until June 29.

Wedding Ceremony Set for June 21

Mr. and Mrs. Karl L. Aven of Okemos, Mich., announce the engagement of their daughter, Marlene, to Julian Chaik, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Chaik of Big Beaver road, Birmingham.

Marlene will graduate from Methodist hospital of Dallas, Tex., school of nursing in the fall. Her fiancé is a graduate of Michigan State university, and is working for his master's degree. The wedding ceremony on June 21 will be in the Faith Lutheran church of Okemos.

Pierce PTA Meet

Merrill Graham, "Michigan's Unofficial Ambassador" gave his fascinating story of Michigan at the final Pierce school PTA meeting last week in the gym. Mr. Graham is author of several Sales Training Courses and is a regular monthly contributor to Trade magazines, also a business lecturer at U of M and MSU.

Beautiful news from Revlon

If you want a fashionable figure ... but just can't stop over-eating

Here's an entirely new approach to weight reduction and figure control —THE THIN-DOWN FORMULA—

Revlon's new THIN-DOWN Beauty Plan ends over-weight caused by overeating. It reforms your appetite and steers you away from fattening foods. First, with THIN-DOWN tablets, your craving for rich foods fades away. You get your daily minimum supply of vitamins and added minerals, too.

Also, Revlon's Beauty-Food menu suggestions show you how slimming foods and smaller portions can be deliciously satisfying! Without strain, without feeling starved, you'll soon have the fashionably slender figure you want, and you'll know how to keep it!

Revlon's THIN-DOWN—30-day supply, $3.50* (only 10c a day). Plus, free, stunning jeweler's "Tablet-Tote" box and Revlon's Beauty-Food eating plan
