People's Column Ode To My Love

Could I get along without you? Would my heart take the strain? Would I know just what to do, To ease the awful pain? For now I have known your love, dear, And I know that it is true. And now I really can't—I fear, Get along without you. Each day my heart would seek you, hon. Each night my tears would fall. I know you are the only one My love, my life, my all. So if the heavens hear me pray And dear, I hope they will. Then when we are both old and gray We'll be together still.

A Tactful Plan for the Bride-to-be!

La Belles

Wedding Gift Registry

WHEN you come to LaBelles and register your gift preferences it is helpful to you, to your friends, and to us.

It becomes your assurance that friends will meet your wishes without your having to directly tell them what you would like; this avoids embarrassment because you do not have to indicate what they will spend.

It is helpful to your friends to be able to intelligently and so tactfully please you with things you desire.

It is helpful to us because we can keep a careful record of selections and thus avoid duplications. And whatever we can do toward making you happy on your "big day", and for years afterwards, brings happiness to us, too.
