

Mrs. J. C. Calhoun, of Bellevue trail, president of the Berkshires branch, sprayed real graves and vegetables with gold in one arrangement, made a swag of cones for another.

Mrs. Paul Ziegler, of Franklin road, president of the hostess branch, was too busy to make her own arrangement Friday, but stopped to admire this tall one with china animal figures perched.

Mrs. Carman Adams, of Birmingham, president of the North Woods branch of the WNFGA, placed a white madonna on a blue base, added touches of gold.

Mrs. Henry Mika, of Kirtland, Westwood, ex-president of the Beverly Hills branch, wound a string of tiny golden beads around a fat little gold figure which she created on a trunk of sphagnum moss.

Party Is the Cat's Meow—While Lion Roars in Yard

BLOOMFIELD WEST — Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Petz of Bloomfield Road were hosts Nov. 1 at a Halloween party for neighbors. The costumed Valley club members (as they call themselves) roamed through paths on the Petz land hunting for an assortment of articles.

The night air was filled with the sounds of screech owls, roaring lions and thundering elephants via specially prepared sound tapes which were piped through speakers set in the woods.

Inside the basement, oak leaves covered the ceiling and cornstalks stood in the corners. Caricatures of the guests were pinned to a picture above the serving table.

Attending the party were Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Nickel, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lyter, Mr. and Mrs. Mason Noble, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Loll and Bud Noble, all of Middlebelt Road, and Mr. and Mrs. John Nabeidien of Walnut Lake, Mrs. Christine Pierce and Miss Virginia Dorwin of Birmingham, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Speier, Mr. J. J. Speier, Mrs. Mabel Ealy of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hemelbach of Livonia.

Mrs. John R. Leigh, who moved here recently from Indianapolis, was guest of honor Tuesday at a party given by Mrs. E. S. Maud and Mrs. John Rodrich, at the Maud home.

Guests were Mrs. John Dickens and her mother, Mrs. Ella Mae Van Meter, Mrs. Robert Lutz, Mrs. H. L. Land, Mrs. Charles Gory, Mrs. George Sims, Mrs. Richard Pierce and Mrs. Donald Baugher, all of Detroit. Other guests were Mrs. E. Rinehardt, Mrs. Lou Nisnel, Mrs. R. P. Fisher and Miss Susan Kammel of Cleveland.

Twelve boys and girls, all members of the sixth grade class of the Franklin Community Church, enjoyed a treasure hunt recently in the Meadowlake area as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Collick of Hayward road.

While the rain came down outside, the youngsters settled down in the Collick home for indoor games and a winner roared in the fireplace.

Mr. and Mrs. Collick devote their time to teaching these children on Sunday.

Mrs. John Bell of Putnam Drive joined her sister, Mrs. Charles Finkle of Detroit, for a trip to Springfield, Ohio. They enjoyed homecoming weekend at Wittenberg college and stayed at the Alpha Xi Delta house as guests of Carol and Evelyn Finkle, both students at Wittenberg.

WNFGA Is Arranging For Happy Holidays

FRANKLIN—Laying the ground-work for a gala Christmas season in homes throughout 17 branches of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association were the guests of day for an all-day workshop at Mrs. Frank Webb and Mrs. WNFGA officers, attended.

Mrs. Carl Williams was chairman of the day, at which state officers Mrs. J. Nanery and Mrs. J. C. Calhoun, Mrs. Arthur Hyde, Mrs. Richard Gephart and Mrs. Marvin Katke were present.

Registration began early in the morning as about 100 delegates from units west of Woodward, between Royal Oak and Pontiac, signed in with Mrs. Ralph Marston.

SHO, said the petition of intervention to be heard last Monday by Judge William Beer, but that attorneys for Van Horn requested postponement until Nov. 24.

It is rumored, Pedicino's statement, said that Federated Civic association of Bloomfield township also will request court permission to intervene in the Van Horn case. If the court allows both groups to intervene, Township Attorney Arthur Blakelee will have direct support through their membership of nearly half the property owners in the township.

covered with rubble from the earth's upheaval. This insulated the lake, published by the Cranbrook Institute of Science. Examining these, they learned about mollusks and shell life found in the lake when scientists from the institute studied the lake ten years ago.

LATER PCA's legal action confirmed the rumor of FCA's legal action in the case. FCA's plea for the right to intervene will be heard by Judge Beer at the same time the other association's petition is presented Nov. 24.

"The two associations are working independently in this case," Petzer told The Birmingham Eclectic Monday, "because we want to lend our support in this court action as quickly as possible."

"The mechanics of consolidating the two over-all civic associations will be worked out later," Petzer said, adding that Federated's plea in the Van Horn case was expected to be filed within three or four days.
