City Sticks By
Its No Drives,
No Parking Plan

Several Knots Need
Cutting by April

Michigan highway department's freeze on Oil-14 acres in the half-mile stretch between Lincoln and 14 Mile does not necessarily mean the city of Birmingham is about to prohibit parking there after next April.

City commissioners made this plain Monday night in determining they will discuss the problem with consultants at a public hearing some weeks from now.

The consultants report 'whether a 14th Street traffic is needed.

Not every Chamber of Commerce president can boast that he started to work in his city's retail section at the age of the Birmingham Chamber of Commerce and C of C President Paul North can.

But he has been working there since 1929, when he was 19, when his father, President Frank North
was managing director of the chamber.

North, who is now 44,
was working at Boston Beverage Company before that.

On that graduation day in 1929, when World War I ended, the Norths moved to Boston and Mr. North took a job with the New England Company.

But he had been working
was 19, when his father, President Frank North
the chamber.

North, who is now 44,
that.

Belkin's Bakery in New York was the site of the factory where the New England Company was located.
