Jays Practice New Cheers

Southeast high school students practice a few new cheers. The band, which has a few new members, plans to use them at the next football game. The new cheers were rehearsed by the students, who were very enthusiastic.

Reported Receives Award

Mrs. Sanders received a certificate of appreciation for reporting activities of American Legion and its Auxiliary in the newspaper. The certificate was presented by the mayor of Birmingham. Mrs. Sanders has been a reporter for the newspaper for several years and has contributed many articles to the publication. She is a member of the Auxiliary and has been active in community affairs.

Goblins Marched on B’ham Streets

This group of costumed marchers from Midvale school were part of the more than 1,000 children who participated in the recent community Christmas parade. Roland Ray, party chairman, and another 3,000 students attended parties at Barrow and Darby junior high schools and Birmingham high school. He said there was only one hitch in the otherwise successful parade. More than 2,000 tickets were issued for the trip on his English Triumph cycle, from Atchison, Kansas, to Birmingham, in 24 hours of straight driving. With a minimum of noise pollution on a cold day, the tour was a success.

What a Big Nose

For art students at Oakwood Junior High School, the annual "Artistry Show" features artistic displays that are open to the public. The show is held in the school's art room and is open to the public Monday through Friday during regular school hours.

Two-Wheel Traveler

From Florida to Bloomfield township in three days by motorcycle is the achievement of Bob Dudley, 19, of 4131 Chestnut, Birmingham. Bob rode the last leg of the trip on his English Triumph cycle, from Gainesville, Florida, to Birmingham, in 24 hours of straight driving. With a minimum of noise pollution on a cold day, the tour was a success. When asked why he rode straight through on the last leg of the trip, he said, "I was cold!"
