Dr. Grey Can't Stay Away from His Work

"I get very restless when I'm retired," said Rev. Dr. Alfred B. Grey, interminister at the Congregational church of Birmingham, likes to stay active. He has taken service wherever he and his wife, Miss Grey, are needed. And he likes to keep working as an interim minister as long as possible, because he doesn't like to sit around.

Dr. Grey was married August 21, 1914, and the couple has two children: Miss Grey and Miss Grey, who are both high school graduates. They have two married daughters and eight grandchildren.

Dr. Grey has served as a minister in several churches for over 40 years. Among them are the churches in Detroit, Michigan, and the churches in Birmingham, Alabama. In addition, he served as pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham for many years.

Dr. Grey retired from active service in 1955, and he continues to serve as a lay preacher and counselor at the church.

Library of Speak
At Auxiliary Meeting

Mrs. G. B. Campbell, head of the Auxiliary Library of Speak, was in attendance at the meeting of the Library of Speak's auxiliary library on October 21, 1955. The meeting was held at 11:30 a.m. in the library on the church's third floor.

Notice of church group meetings and special events is published in the church bulletin weekly.

"We'd love to come," you said. "Let me phone a baby-sitter." And soon you were off for a relaxing evening of friends.

You could relax because the children were in good hands and because you knew the telephone was right at hand for the baby-sitter to phone you if necessary.

Yes, your telephone is always ready to help. Let it run your day-to-day errands for you, plan good times, keep you in touch with friends and loved ones. It's there just no and its usefulness.
