Richard Bairds Entertain The Ridgedale Players

The Richard Bairds of Batolith circle hosted a buffet dinner for 40 Ridgedale Players on Saturday evening, introducing new members, Mr. and Mrs. Glenese Garwood of Ridgedale circle. Among the others present were Mr. and Mrs. William Gordan of Ridgedale circle. The Baird's residence on Cheyenne Street was the scene of the affair. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Phillips welcomed Mr. and Mrs. Charles Willis, Sr. and Miss Cherie Phillips.

A 'First' Held at Showcase House

First women's group to hold a meeting in the new 'house within a house' at Showcase, Inc., the Ogawa branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association. Left, Mrs. George C. Ogawa, president; Mrs. Alice D. Bohn, first vice-president; Mrs. Edith T. Cross, second vice-president; Mrs. Gertrude H. Watanabe, secretary; Mrs. Richard B. Smith, treasurer; Mrs. R. E. Voorhees, correspondent, and Mrs. George C. Ogawa, chairman. The new organization met in the former Watanabe home for the first time since the meeting was held there. Mrs. Ogawa gave the address, and Mrs. Voorhees read the By-Laws. The group will meet in the new 'house within a house' which is being built at the Showcase for the exclusive use of the group. The new house will be 14 feet square and will be completed in March. The group will meet in the new house every month, the first meeting being held in January.
