St. Dunstan’s Present
‘Middle of The Night’

"Middle of the Night" will be presented by St. Dunstan's as its second show of the season, Nov. 14, 15, 21 and 22. It was written by Paddy Chayefsky and played Edwin G. Robinson in its successful Broadway run.

This year, much as Paddy Chayevesky's "Middle of The Night" is in itself, is the same story, it is dealt with in the manner of a murder mystery, a murder story in which people compete to have their way. The night is really where the chronology is, where the story is told. The night is the only time of day when people are really alive.

THE STORY - "Middle of the Night"locates the very deep and real time in the very deep and real life in the very deep and real world. The night is the only time of day when people are really alive.
