Swedish Student Says, How Do You Do...

By Lennart Nilsson

My name is Lennart Nilsson. I am from Skarafrugt, Sweden. Here in USA I live with Mr. and Mrs. John Blahnik in Rochester. I go to school at Avondale High.

As I said before I come from a small town in Sweden, Skarafrugt, which is in the province of Smaland. It is in the middle of Sweden. We live in a village with about 1,000 people. The city of Skara is only about 8 miles north of Skarafrugt.

Sweden is the fourth largest country in Europe, slightly larger than California. It is divided into 29 provinces, or counties, which is divided into 14 districts. The city of Skara is in the province of Smaland, which is divided into 14 districts.

The most important industries are agriculture, meat packing, and dairy farming.

The city of Skara is divided into 14 districts, each with its own government. The city of Skara is divided into 14 districts, each with its own government.

Southfield College is in High Spirits!

Eight Southfield cheerleaders have the "jump" on rivals with their latest cheer in gymnastics. The varsity squad, coached by Mrs. Barbara Barrett, practices two hours a week in addition to landing cheers at the high school games. The girls are Marjorie Lebowitz (captain), Elaine Correa, (vice-captain), Pat O'Hara, Karen Young, Marlie Stanford, Carol Hartman, Janet Godfrey and Judy Dorn. Five of the girls are seniors and plan to attend college. Asked if they want to continue cheering beyond this year, each of the Southfield cheerleaders chimed, "Definitely!"

Future Colleges Shop for a School At Advisory Night

Only 1,000 students in their first year of college are admitted to the AAUW college. The AAUW college offers a variety of courses in arts and sciences, and is one of the most popular high schools in the United States. The students from 17 area schools are given a tour of the campus.
