2 Homes Needed For AFS Students
 Birmingham high school needs homes for two foreign students next year, according to Mrs. Carol Darling, dean of students and head of the American Field Service program at the high school.
 Applications will be accepted by Mrs. Darling in the high school office.
 Applicants must have a junior or senior student in the family.

Judge Rules B-1 Zone 'Reasonable' On E. 14 Mile Rd.
 Oakland Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams has upheld the city's B-1 (professional office) zoning of property on E. 14 Mile road, it was reported to city officials this week by Birmingham City Attorney Dean G. Belter.
 Judge Adams ruled that plaintiffs Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Lambert, who live on the controversial property, are not entitled to a reasonable use of their property. The couple claimed the land should be zoned to a heavier type of commercial use. The large part of the north, B-2 business to the west, and B-1 to the east.

Turn on Your Porch Lights
 After weeks of intensive preparation, Mrs. Eric Pearson Jr. and Mrs. Charles Daigleish Jr. can re-join the volunteer workers in Bloomfield township as well as Birmingham, will call on homes in their neighborhood Dec. 2 from 7 to 9 p.m.
 If a family isn't home they will leave a self-addressed envelope so contributions may be mailed in. Birmingham firemen, in off-duty hours, have cooperated by placing candles in neighboring stores and other locations for the convenience of stray coin givers.

Alert Clerk Helps Police Nab 3 Men
 Three men arrested Nov. 2 by Birmingham police for passing bad checks will be examined in Municipal court Friday.
 Ernest Holmes, 32, of 290 Sallott, Ecorse; Alvin Atkins, 34, of 290 Polk, River Rouge; and James W. King, 22, of 2175 Beatrice, Detroit, were arrested as the result of an alert cashier at Wrigley's Supermarket, 1855 Woodward.
 Detective Lt. Merlin Holquist and cashier Frances Johnson cashed a check for the men, but felt there was something wrong. She called the company that issued the check and found it had been stolen, took down the men's license number and called police.
 Detective Richard Chambers said a search of the car turned up 18 more of the checks, which were made out and ready to be cashed.
