Derby Hosts Parents At Open House

By SUE BREEDLOVE

Derby held its annual open house Nov. 12. At the beginning of open house, Mr. Burchette, Derby's principal, spoke to the assembled parents and the chorus sang "Autumn Leaves" and "Wish I Was". Then the parents went to home-rooms and followed their schedule, spending about ten minutes in each class. Teachers outlined the course of study and displayed student work.

The Spanish club held an organizational meeting Oct. 23. It was a very short meeting to get a list of members and elect officers.

Members are Carol Gilchrist, Joyce Blake, Kathryn Jones, Nancy Selman, Chuck Nide, Sandy Turt, Cindy Clemens, Lisa Greig, Sue Breedlove, Mary Lou Shelling, Gail Davidson, Nancy Manigold, Cheryl Howson, Wendy Westgate, Bob Westbury, Margaret Stinson, Starlet Brunel, Kathy Squire, Bianca Albert, Maribeth Mosely, and Carol Emmerting. They elected Starlet Brunel president; Nancy Manigold, treasurer, and Sue Breedlove, secretary.

The club plans to take three or four field trips this year. The first will be a trip to the Mexican Village for dinner, then to the Spanish club at the YWCA in downtown Detroit.

A trip to Mexico during Easter vacation is being planned. About thirty students are expected to go. The trip is being arranged by one of the air lines.

The Spanish club is being sponsored by Mrs. Pierce and promises to be fun for everyone.

Cranbrook Corridor

Cranbrook's annual Fall formal dance will be held this Saturday night, November 12, from nine to twelve in the evening in the school dining room, which will be arranged as a ball room for the event. The theme of the dance, of which there has been much speculation, this year is to be "Black Magic". The Social Committee, headed by Rick Williams, has contracted the eleven piece orchestra of Mac Pitt, which from all reports is excellent for the occasion. To add to the reputation of this orchestra, the social committee has been adding little hints of just how much better it really is than advertised. Decorations are being made to conform with the theme of the dance. Refreshments are being served by the new kitchen staff of Mrs. Page. All in all this dance promises to be one of the highest points of social life at Cranbrook AM-PM radio.
