Traveling Grandmother' Honored in S. Berkshires

SOUTH BERKSHIRES—Relatives and family members gathered at the Alexander Neud home on Leemoor drive Saturday evening for a birthday celebration honoring Neud's mother, Mrs. Alexandra Neud, who arrived two weeks ago from Warsaw, Poland.

After she left the United States some 30 years ago, Mrs. Neud lived in Argentina 20 years and later went to Europe where she visited most of the European countries. Among the 22 guests at the combination welcoming and birthday festivities were her brother Stanley Majewski of Detroit and three grandchildren, Alex, Jr., Karen and Bonnie Neud.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Welsh are back at their Embassy drive home after spending four days in Chicago where they attended the National Hardware Lumbermen's convention and entertained business associates at the Sherman Hotel.

The Birmingham Country club was the scene Saturday of a birthday party and luncheon hosted by Mrs. Paul Tishken for her seven-year old grandson John. The festive affair was attended by Mike Amstutz, Scott Decker, Stephen Kyska, Pat Brady, Tom Moses, Kevin Seemey, Barbara and Nancy Kipp, Julie South, Arlene Lenz, Melinda Seher, Malady Parker and Cecilia Girvin.

Helping to make the party a success were John's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Tishken.

Resuming the monthly buffet-supper and card club with friends of long standing, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Vigi were hosts Saturday at their Leemoor drive home to Mr. and Mrs. John Druta, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Andras and Mr. and Mrs. Tony Christian.

Mrs. Roy Johnson of Embassy drive paid a surprise visit recently to son Bob, at Concordia college in Milwaukee and helped celebrate his 16th birthday. Last week the Johnsons with their two other sons, Kenneth and Michael enjoyed a family dinner celebrating Dad's birthday and the couple's 18th wedding anniversary.

A pirate motif birthday cake centered the table for Kevin Welsh's fifth birthday dinner Sunday at his home on Elwood drive. Present at the family gathering were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Welsh, his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Welsh, two aunts, Isabelle Pude and Kay Welsh; and brothers, Mark and Chris.
