Walnut Lake WNFGA Sees Busy Days Ahead

WALNUT LAKE—Walnut Lake WNFGA has a busy schedule next month.

The regular meeting Dec. 8, slated at the home of Mrs. Frank Nagel, 1907 East 1st St. will be highlighted by a "Christmas Decorations" talk by Mrs. Hazel Dunlop of J. L. Hudson company.

Hostesses at the noon tea will be Mrs. Henry Hall, Mrs. Edward Griggs, Mrs. A. A. Wilbur and Mrs. Parker Rockwell.

DEC. 16 is the Christmas luncheon date for the Happy Garden's club of Pontiac state hospital. Mrs. Henry Sahlin of Comfort drive will host the patients and the sponsoring horticultural therapy group of the garden club.

Dec. 15 will find Mrs. Sahlin again as hostess to the entire garden club for their annual green's workshop.

Among the deer hunters from this area who are hunting in the north woods are William Bunnell of West Dartmouth road, who left Thursday for Canada Creek Ranch, near Atlanta, Ga. Mr. Bunnell left Friday to join his father.

Recent visitors at the Bunnell residence were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Bunnell of Toledo.

W. L. McCane, of Old Orchard drive, is doing his hunting this year in the upper peninsula.

Reminiscing about events that took place on their European tour were today's luncheon guests of Mrs. W. H. Brieden at her home on East Dartmouth road. Mrs. Brieden, of 1907 East 1st St., was joined by Mrs. Mable Hallinger of Buell Oak, Mrs. Ed. Conner, Mrs. Lucile Graves of Birmingham and the hostess, Mrs. Gordon Moore, Mrs. Harry Mullen, Mrs. Floyd Layman, Mrs. Backart and Mrs. Tros.

A Flood of Blood Is What They Need

WALNUT LAKE—Walnut Lake blood donors: heed this call!

Donations are needed to up the corporate count in Walnut Lake, according to Mrs. John Nabeidan, recruiting chairman for the group.

Donors can help the situation from 2:30-5 p.m. and 6:30-9 p.m. Nov. 24 at the West Bloomfield township hall.

Because of the blood bank, Walnut Lake residents are entitled to transfusions when needed by contacting Mrs. Nabeidan.

Millionaires to Convene At Walnut Lake Party

WALNUT LAKE—Walnut Lake Men's club will hand out money with abandon Nov. 29 when they stage their millionaire party. Play money may be purchased in large quantities to "gamble" at the many games set up in the club rooms.

A LAS Vegas atmosphere will prevail at the party with wall posters and suitably garbed cruppers. For the first time this annual party will be open to the public with plenty of parking space provided.

Proceeds will be channeled to the general fund which benefits the Boy's club, the Children's Christianities and other civic activities.

THE Club house, near the corner of Walnut Lake and Inkster roads, will be open for business at 8:30 p.m. sharp.

Walnut Lake Cubs Hold Graduation, Honor 28 Boys

WALNUT LAKE—Awards and graduation highlighted the recent October meeting of Cub Scout pack 41.

Eugene Hamilton advanced to boy scout status, while 28 others were given awards.

The young men who earned awards are Tommy Beck, Billy Crosey, Bruce Foster, Keith Martin, Bob Miles, Steve Miles, Jeff Thompson, Arthur Enroth, Randy Jacobson, Mark Russell, Robert Nelson and Chris Williams.

Tom Latham, Rusty Mullin, Tim Welken, Rolf Weeks, Bill Wenzel, Donald Robertson, Dave Phillips, Don Hamilton, John Sanborn, James G. O. Beeman, Frank Druzynski, Bob, who was taken to William Beaumont hospital following the game, suffered a brain concussion.

Since his arrival home, members of the team and many concerned parents have either called in person or phoned to wish the young athlete a speedy recovery.

Student Recovering From Grid Injury

BLOOMFIELD WEST—The Robert McKenzie home on Inkster road has been an upset domicile since son Robert was seriously injured while playing guard during the Birmingham-Kimball game.

Bob, who was taken to William Beaumont hospital following the game, suffered a brain concussion. Since his arrival home, members of the team and many concerned parents have either called in person or phoned to wish the young athlete a speedy recovery.

Westchester WNFGA Starts Christmas Planning

WESTCHESTER—Program planning for the holidays' is what the Westchester WNFGA will talk about when they meet at 8 p.m. Nov. 24, at the home of Mrs. John Schuster on Middlebury lane. Assisting as co-hostesses will be Mrs. Harold Twyman, Mrs. Vernon Fitch and Mrs. Jay Cumbea.

tee is Mrs. George Clark, Mrs. John Bryant, Mrs. Robert Johnson, Mrs. Fay Knapp and Mrs. Harold Twyman. Mrs. Albert Feller of South drive will greet the workshop at 8 p.m. on December 8.

New WNFGA members are Mrs. G. O. Beeman, Mrs. Frank Druzynski, Mrs. Jack Seelye, Mrs. Boris Osojnak, Mrs. Earl Heid, Mrs. Ben Franklin and Mrs. Kenneth Brands.

The Earl J. Potters of Farmingdale drive were hosts to grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Barnes of Lancaster, Ohio, last weekend.

Col. and Mrs. John E. Pokorny of Middlebury lane entertained as houseguests, the Hon. Mr. W. E. Novis, managing director of Carter & Co., Ltd. of London, England. During his stay the Pokornys enjoyed showing him Cranbrook and local architecture.

Henry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Sokol of Middlebury lane, celebrated his 11th birthday Saturday at a "foot long hot dog" party. The young model airplane enthusiast invited ten guests, received ten models to build and he couldn't have been happier.

Going home with model airplanes (what else?) for favors were Bill Mirbach, Alan Ladd, Ken Yeager, Doug Filler, Wayne Warner, David Breedlove, Dave Seed, Gary Lee King, Lee Davis, Darrell Duke and brother Donald, sisters Peggy and Patricia.

Tomorrow the family will gather for a dinner party.

Saturday will set off a three day celebration for Shippy, son of Mrs. and Leo Humphrey of Berkshires drive. Skip will be seven on Saturday and will have friends Bobby Maki, Bob and Phil Mease, Dave Jackson, Jimmy Graham and "Tata" in for lunch, games and prizes.

Because this is the first time the family has been located in Michigan for a birthday the family guests have to be divided. Coming in Sunday for a party will be the grandparents Mr. and Mrs. William Martin, aunts and uncles, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Dick, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jardine and family Billy, Tommy, Jacqueline and Mary Ann, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Burke and Mrs. Agnes Patton.

Thanksgiving means a visit from grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Humphrey, Rene Whitmore, Vern Williams and brothers Dave and Dennis.

Nancy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Meier of Pebble lane, invited her friends in for her fifth birthday party. Luncheon, games and prizes were fun for Donna, Patrick and Randy Barone, Corinne and Christine Matson, Susan and Holly Williams.

Roar Heard In Berkshires, 20's Revived

BERKSHIRES—A roaring twenties party, sponsored by the Saturday club, was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henderson of Old Mill road and their houseguests for the weekend, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hoeland of Dayton, Ohio.

Mrs. Henderson and Mrs. Hoeland decked themselves out in fringed dresses, rhinestone jewelry and, of course, the ever popular headache band.

Henderson wore striped coat and pants and a straw hat while Hoeland's outfit was practically the same except for his sensational brown and white checked tickers.

Before going to the party they attended a cocktail party given by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Devar of Middlebury lane in Westchester. There were many laughs at the costume guests arrived. Guests for cocktails were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Milburn, Mr. and Mrs. James Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kauffmann and Mr. and Mrs. James Grissom.

A buffet dinner was given Saturday for Lauri Kramb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Kramb of Chula Vista lane. Lauri celebrated her seventh birthday.

Wishing Lauri a Happy Birthday were Christy Reason, Terrell and Robbi Wink, Danny Harrington, Elise Boudreau, Bobby Maki, Susan Pollock, Janet Henderson, K. Douglas Mann, Leo and George Kasan and Lauri's sister, Kathy.

A luncheon was given Tuesday by Mrs. Robert C. Gordon. Guest of honor was Mrs. Leslie F. Baker of Dearborn, who will be soon moving to Tucson, Ariz. Guests were Mrs. Kenneth M. McGuire, Mrs. Nelson K. Smith, Mrs. Arnold Cosland's outfit was practically the same except for his sensational brown and white checked tickers.
