Baby Christened in Heirloom Dress

Mark Alexander, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Irwin, was baptized Sunday at the First Presbyterian church, wearing his maternal great-grandmother's christening dress. Every detail and stitch of the embroidered unbroidered muslin dress was done by hand.

Mark's mother is the former Carolyn DeWald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James C. McDonald of Westwood ave.

The baptism service was conducted by the pastor of the church, Rev. Dr. E. L. Buchanan.

The Christening dinner was given by the maternal parents of their wedding on November 1st.

BOPOF's to Dance Again

An overdose of variety will set the theme for a BOPOF dance Saturday night at Orchard Lake country club. A group of teenagers from Birmingham, Oakland and Bloomfield Hills area will attend.

The indoor and outdoor decorations will feature lights and plastic trees.

The Easy Way...

Teenagers...a weight control book prodded strictly for you...a weight by Birmingham's Bette W. Presser. Writers on how to win your weight...the easy way to get slims and stay slims was photographed by the "New Teen Age Diet Book."

It is a complete and comprehensive guide to trim good looks, a clear and radiant complexion, a healthy body and the pose and posture that comes with knowing you look your best. Bette W's new rule on "How to Cut a Figure" will show you how to lose pounds but not to press and pressure.

Dear Santa...Furu Please

Forest Lake Country Club is sponsoring a summer evening fashion show and dinner, using the theme "Dear Santa...Furu Please.

A master of operatic artistry will be in a children's show at the club Saturday evening. An opera will be sung for the young audience. The opera will be

The Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens. It will feature children as the actors.

Little Mothers...Big Helpers

Four young children...ages 10 and 11...to have their own nursery. This nursery will become the duty of the little ones. Mrs. Charles W. Foster, Mrs. William G. Hays and Mrs. John P. Atkins.

Mary Lou Curry of Villa Vista and Marlene Hartzell have the basket in charge of craft items that can be purchased for the nursery during the show.

Every Tuesday and Thursday from 4 to 5:30 p.m. they are "little mothers" for neighborhood children...for the summer of two years.

Mother-Daughter Families to Move

Mrs. Morris C. Beta of Stroudslee, Bloomfield Hills, and eight families of our area will be moving to St. Alipius, W. Va., where they will be the first Belgian family.

Sharing the party was the Kinsey daughter, Mrs. Leon Greene, and Mrs. Robert Hanlon who will be in St. Alipius with their five children. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hanlon will be the first First Baptist church.

Rudolph Steiner School is back in classes for the new school year. Three hundred students are in the school.
