Wells Alums Plan Brunch

The Wells College alumni club held its regular luncheon last week, Mrs. Henrietta B. Smith, alumna president. Mrs. Charles B. Allen, alumna vice president, Mrs. John H. F. Brown, alumna secretary, and Mrs. Frank E. Long, alumna treasurer, also were present.

G. E. Edsell, head of Wells college and chairman of the Wells College committee, gave a report on what has been accomplished by the Wells college women since last year and what progress is being made.

Results of System

A discussion on the system of education at Wells was presented by Mrs. Smith.

Art Club Meeting

The Fine Arts Club had its monthly meeting last week, and it was decided to take a trip to the near-by town to see the art exhibits.

Fashions Benefit Child Guidance

A donor of fashions didn't dampen the spirits of the guests at the Birmingham Junior Chamber of Commerce auxiliary when they arrived at Forest Lake Country club last week for an annual benefit luncheon and fashions show for the Birmingham Child Guidance Clinic. Members of the auxiliary had been busy with endless planning.

With the help of Mrs. John W. Ward, Mrs. Robert Isaacson, Mrs. A. N. M. Miller, Mrs. W. A. Bratton, and Mrs. E. M. Gerould, the auxiliary was able to pull off a successful event.

Attends Concert

Mrs. Charles B. Allen, alumna president, attended the recent concert at the Birmingham Junior Chamber of Commerce auxiliary.

Have You Met

The members of the Birmingham Junior Chamber of Commerce auxiliary met recently at the home of Mrs. E. M. Gerould, and there were refreshments served. The meeting was informal and friendly.
