Warmer, shorter days mean Christmas is just around the corner. For our customers, that means it’s time to begin buying their greetings, gifts, and good wishes. Peck’s has a host of fun things to offer:

Kingswood Column

Every year at Kingswood each of the departments tries to do something in order to raise money for a very worthy cause. This year it is the American Lung Association. November 17, the first of twelve meetings will be held in the new North Gym and the day of the meeting is to be announced. The meeting will begin at 8 p.m. and will last until 10 p.m. The meeting will be held in the new North Gym and the evening is to be set aside entirely for the benefit of this worthy cause.

The eight-grade band displays their talent at the meeting on November 17, and\nthe band will be under the direction of Mr. A. W.\nSmith. The program will include such well-known songs

Southfield High
"Stormed By 'Eager Beavers'

By BARBARA TROY, JOHN dOGG and JEFF DAVENPORT It was Monday morning. The classroom was filled with students who were eagerly anticipating the teaching of Mr. Southfield's drama class. By the time the bell rang, the excitement was electric.

"You all know the rules, class," Mr.
Southfield began. "We've got a new play ready to go. It's a classic comedy that's sure to please everyone."

The class burst into applause, united in their excitement. Mr.
Southfield continued, "And the guest star for this production is none other than Mr. Southfield himself!"

The room erupted in cheers, and the atmosphere was electric.

The play began with a series of humorous sketches, each
