Franklin Women Comment
On Bazaar Pros and Cons

FRANKLIN—This is the Saturday for Bazaar, and the women are putting their wares on anywhere and everywhere. And, generally speaking, it is the harvest of months of saving and preparation, usually months and months of labor. But, in Franklin, they are not so very well known and they are always on the lookout for a new market for their wares.

By Mrs. Thomas, a young woman, one of the organizers of the Franklin Bazaar, she says, "We have been working hard all week and we are ready to sell. We have been selling a lot of our wares already and we hope to make a good profit. The bazaar is in aid of a good cause and we are doing our best to make it a success."

Mrs. Thomas, who is the sister of Mrs. Brown, another organizer, added, "We have been working hard to prepare our wares and we have been receiving a lot of orders. We are hoping to make a good profit and we are doing our best to please our customers."

By Mrs. Brown, another organizer, she says, "We have been working hard to prepare our wares and we have been receiving a lot of orders. We are hoping to make a good profit and we are doing our best to please our customers."

By Mrs. White, another organizer, she says, "We have been working hard to prepare our wares and we have been receiving a lot of orders. We are hoping to make a good profit and we are doing our best to please our customers."
