Queen's Crown Accents Regal Gown of Lace

At high noon Saturday, St. Hugo-of-the-Hills was the scene of a ceremony uniting in marriage Helen Rita Ruetty and Kelly Earnest Hansen.

Reflecting the long ago elegance of the Renaissance period, the bride's regal gown of crystal white chandilly lace was blended with tulle. Pearls and iridescent paillettes frosted the lace, forming the entire bodice which was designed with petal finished bateau decollete and long tapered sleeves. The rose patterned chandilly also formed a hem length bouffant skirt flared in side fullness from the elongated waistline and spread to a court train.

A queen's crown of rhinestones in filigree design, caught her blazed veil of silk illusion. Her bouquet was a creation of syphronitis and lilacs-of-the-valley. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Anthony Ruetty of Ranch lane, Bloomfield Hills and the Paul E. Hansens of Chatham, Ont.

BRIDAL attendants, whose gowns were of American Beauty velvet, carried white fur muffs trimmed with garnet rosettes and ivory. They were Mrs. Frank Siebert, Jr., of Vermont, Dorothy Dyer of New York, Mrs. James Campbell of Toronto and Nona Ricketts and Mrs. John Brede of Detroit.

Progress
Is Imperative . . .

With the funeral, it is the same as with every other part of this life. With a growing population, and ever improving standard of living, we are also searching for the ways to better funeral service.

So if we improve, and invest in new facilities, it is really in answer to the public demand. We try to be alert to your requirements.
