"Umm, these rolls are good. Wonder what grade we'll get for them," senior Jackie White (left) asks Bonnie Russell, Shirley Colan, and Lynn Mellen while they sample gelatin salad and rolls during the homemaking class at Bloomfield Hills high school. The girls and their classmates are now planning

a Christmas food program under the direction of their instructor, Mrs. Arthur Van Ryzin. They will set tables with decorations from nine countries, prepare foods for each display and serve guests and faculty members during pre-Christmas school days.

Parochial Notes Holy Name Students See Mission Film

By CAROL JURICA

Mr. Harry Bojarski came to Holy Name Nov. 19 representing the Holy Childhood and Propagation of the Faith. He organized a short quiz show in which several students took part and showed a movie on the work of the missions in foreign lands.

Varsity and junior varsity football players and their fathers attended a football banquet Nov. 26, honoring the football players. Junior varsity and varsity coaches Howard Hughes and Martin Foley also attended the affair. Guests of honor were Magr. Paddock, Leon Hart, Lou Creekmar and Lyall Smith.

Holy Name is enjoying a four-day holiday weekend which began with the close of classes on Wednesday. Classes will resume Monday.
