Lange-Boatright
Exchange Vows

Nancy Carol Boatright became the bride of Ronald Lange on Oct. 18 at the First Methodist in Birmingham. Dr. Arnold Runkel performed the 2 o'clock ceremony.

Nancy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Boatright of Lake Odessa, Mich. Lange is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lange of Elwood street, Birmingham.

The bride walked down the aisle in a white ballerina length gown of lace featuring long sleeves and a high neckline. Her fingertip veil of silk tulle was caught to a crown of seed pearls.

Maid of honor, Carlene Halm, wore a pink ballerina lace dress with bouquet of matching flowers.

Donald Lange stood as best man and officiating the guests were Alvin Lange and Dale Stevens.

The newlyweds are residing in Pontiac after a honeymoon to the Smoky mountains.

Have You Met . . .

The residents of 1512 Dorchesterside, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thorp moved from Highland Park on Sept. 15. Mr. Thorp is an engineer for Ross Oliver Co. They have three children. Their hobbies are golfing and hunting.

B'ham PTA Council
Discusses Schools

Mrs. C. W. Neldret of Pontiac, president of the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers, appeared at the Oct. meeting of the Birmingham PTA council to urge wider local participation in MCP's current program, "Studying Michigan Schools."

To implement the program, MCP has published an experimental "Discussion Guide for Citizens," a 33-page document designed to inform each citizen of the state and local education picture, and to enable him to express his opinions concerning public education.

Mrs. Neldret indicated that results of the program may be used for research purposes, but its primary goal is an informed citizenry which will mould public opinion in favor of good schools.
