Society*Special Event at Community House

Over one thousand new residents have come to the Bloomfield-Birmingham area in the past year. These persons have received invitations to the annual Open House at the Birmingham Community House scheduled from 3 to 5 p.m. on Sunday.

Harold McFarland, president of the Community House board, and board members will greet the new residents. Also assisting will be Mrs. R. B. Mead, president of the Newcomers club, Mrs. Ruth Shain, honorary president of the Community House and Norman Weston, immediate past president.

Besides the exhibits of various organizations, a brief program will feature talks by Mayor Carl Ingram, Supt. of Schools Dwight Ireland; chief of police Ralph Moxley; fire chief, Park Smith; and chairman of the recreation committee, Robert Girardin.

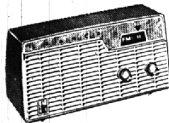

Chairman of the day is Mrs. Harold Bickner, who will be assisted by her committee which includes Mrs. Raymond Giffels, Mrs. R. J. Mason and Mrs. C. W. Frederick.

Virginia Warren Completes Course

Mrs. Virginia Lee Warren, regional southeastern Michigan deputy chairman of emergency welfare services and coordinator of emergency welfare services in Oakland County, has returned from a five-day course at the office of civil and defense mobilization at Battle Creek.

She soon will instruct the Birmingham-Bloomfield branch of international Zonta, of which she is a member, in the lodging course. Mrs. Warren also serves as unified training chairman for southeastern Michigan.

Benefit Performance

In the Bloomfield Village home of Mrs. Richard Schroeder (right) Mrs. Lloyd Diehl, Jr. (center), Birmingham chairman, and Mrs. Paul Hymans are taking reservations for "Lil' Abner." The benefit performance of the smash hit musical is being sponsored by the alumnae association of St. Mary Academy for the night of Nov. 19 at the Riviera theater.

Village Women Present Pianist In Eight Recitals

Beginning Monday, Nov. 10 at 10 a.m., the village Women's club will present the distinguished pianist and lecturer Karl Haas in a series of eight "conversation recitals," entitled "Advances in Music." Lectures will be in the auditorium of the new Grinnell building.

Born and educated in South Germany and graduated from the conservatory at Mannheim, Mr. Haas came to Detroit in 1938 as a member of the faculty of the Benderson Netorg school of piano, continuing his studies with Netorg and famous Artur Schnabel.

The Village Women's club series which he is presenting will cover the anatomy of music, its raw materials and ingredients to music as a mirror of cultural, political and social events around the world. Mrs. Sidney Oldberg is chairman of the class.

'Tubby the Tuba' Begins Season

Detroit Symphony orchestra arrived home Friday in chartered planes after making a spectacular debut as official orchestra for the 99th annual music festival at Worcester, Mass., America's oldest presentation.

Saturday at 11 a.m., Valtor Poole will conduct the first of four Young People's Concerts of the season with Oscar LaGasse, tuba player, featured in Kleinsinger's "Tubby the Tuba." Shields Davies will narrate the work. Young People's concerts are sponsored by the Junior Leagues of Birmingham-Detroit.
