Toy Demonstration Set for Pi Beta Phi's Meeting

Christmas shopping should be easy for the Pi Beta Phi alumnae of Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills, who will have a demonstration and sale of toys at their Tuesday meeting at the home of Mrs. Fraser Hilder on Endaleigh drive. Luncheon will be served by Mrs.

R. W. Griffith, Mrs. T. W. Hall and Mrs. Richard Featherstone. Pi Beta Phi's annual sale of handwoven articles and hand crafts from their Settlement school Arrowcraft Shop in Gatlinburg, Tenn., was Wednesday at the home of Mrs. J. J. Werner of Pleasant, at an informal coffee.

All articles are made in mountain homes in the Smoky mountains under the direction of the Psi Settlement school, which also provides vocational and elementary education for the mountain people around Gatlinburg.

B'ham Represented At Area Meeting

Birmingham was represented in October at an area meeting of the 5th district of the Credit Women's Breakfast clubs of North America in Windsor, Ontario, Canada.

Jean Carr, president; Bernice Baker, secretary; Lib Combs and Ethel Bassett, members of the board of directors of the Birmingham Credit Women's club, attended the all day "workshop" meeting.

Beverly Strauss Urban and Mary Harris, board member and treasurer, attended a luncheon recently to meet the 5th district president, Hilda Felice from St. Catherine's, Ontario, Canada.

Geneva McQuatters from Central office headquarters at St. Louis, Mo., answered questions pertaining to their relations to the local clubs. Rita Barnes, former international vice president, conducted the all day meeting.

Open House Planned

Pierce school will have an Open House for PTA meeting in November. As in the past, this will be during American Education Week. Wednesday, at 8 p.m. Pierce School parents are invited to come and meet their child's teacher and to see and hear what the teachers and children have been doing since September.
