Chevy Offers Complete Impala Series

The 1959 Chevrolet offers a complete Impala series in its array of 14 passenger cars. The top-flight member of this new series, which is on display at North Chevrolet Co., 1000 S. Woodward, is the smartly styled sport sedan. Additional models in this line include the convertible, sport coupe and a four-door sedan. This luxury model is more spacious with a new wrap-around rear window, a sleek flat top and deluxe interior appointments. Mechanical advancements include improved brakes, new suspension and easier handling. New paint retains brilliance up to three years.

B'ham Area Men Appointed By General Motors Corp.

General Motors Corp. this week announced the appointments of five Birmingham area men. The board of directors elected George Russell, 286 Lone Pine road, Bloomfield Hills, vice president of finance.

Russell has been vice president in charge of the General Motors financial staff, and a GM director since April 2, 1956. In his new position he will continue as a member of the finance, executive and administration committees of General Motors.

He is director of several GM subsidiaries, including General Motors Acceptance Corp., General Exchange Insurance Corp., and Motors Insurance Corp. He is also director of Ethyl Corp. Born March 15, 1905, he joined the treasurer's staff of General Motors after graduating from the University of Minnesota in 1927 with a degree in Business Administration.

HE WAS appointed assistant treasurer of General Motors in 1944, and finance manager of the Overseas Operation Div. in 1949. He became treasurer in 1951.

The four other appointments announced were: John P. Sullivan, 759 Wooddale road, Birmingham, general assistant treasurer; Mark E. Kelly, 888 Bloomcrest drive, Bloomfield Hills, assistant treasurer; Henry W. Welch, 18604 Devonshire, Birmingham, assistant controller; Richard E. Elliott, 6169 Thurber, Birmingham, controller of the Detroit Diesel Engine Div. of General Motors Corp. Elliott will succeed Roger H. Ringo, 2755 Brookside drive, Bloomfield Hills, who is being transferred pending his retirement at the end of this year.
