Couple Repeat Vows In Evening Ceremony

Beverly Ann Harris wore a gown of miramist tafeta with a cathedral train for her marriage to John Edward Stark Saturday evening at Our Shepherd Lutheran church. The Rev. Howard Alward performed the 7 o'clock ceremony in the presence of 225 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald G. Harris of Humphrey street, Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Broer F. Stark of Allen Park.

HER GOWN featured a round neckline accented by scalloped Venice lace which framed the empire bodice and the back of the skirt had a large pouge which gave the appearance of a bustle.

A crown of tafeta edged with pearls secured her filigree veil of silk illusion. Her bouquet consisted of white fuji mums and roses.

Mrs. Glen "Greenleaf" sister of the bride, was matron of honor and her gown was fashioned of guirre delusive satin with round neckline and bell-shaped skirt. She carried a cascade of bronze fuji mums.

BRIDESMAIDS were Helen Hackman, Henrietta Thibbert and Ginger Updike. They wore tulle gowns of satin with round necklines and bell-shaped skirts. Each carried a bouquet of an full mum.

Broer Stark was his brother's best man. Others were Ken Calhoun, Don Curtis and Bob Chase.

Mother of the bride wore a rose tafeta dress with a shirred bodice and a corsage of white roses. Mrs. Stark selected an avocado face sheath dress with corsage of white roses.

She changed to a royal blue jersey dress for her wedding trip to the Smoky mountains.

New Bigelow Broadloom laughs at stains!

Bigelow "Baton"
$5.95
SQ. YD.

No more "keep off the carpet" signs with this new tweed broadloom! The toughest stains clean right out with everyday household cleaners, and the color won't come out with the stain—even if you have to use bleach. That's because Baton is made of amazing Staylux carpet rayon with color sealed in.

Baton's rich town and country tweed hides soil and footprints, too. Its fashionable multicolors provide a beautiful background for any color scheme. And you'll love the smart new look the luscious texture brings to every room!
