

Little Chief's Birthday Party

There was much excitement Saturday afternoon at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Donald Schubert of Lincoln drive, Bloomfield township, when 14 little Indians arrived to celebrate a birthday. "Heap Little Indian Chief", Mark, celebrated his sixth birthday. As guests arrived they were presented colorful Indian feathered headpieces and their faces painted with war paint. Indianheads to clamp on their bikes were given for favors. The Indian motif was carried out with an Indian birthday cake, decorated with tiny Indians dancing around the top of the cake surrounded by a small fence. Around the table were small teepees covering candy dishes and little pots of burning incense resembling camp fires. Guests wishing "Little Chief Mark" (sitting in the middle) a Happy Birthday are Claudia Henderson, Karen Schwartz, Judy Casalon, Cissy Sloan, Jamie Strong, Judy Jankowski, Eddie Jankowski, Thomas Washburn, Randy Washburn, Jimmy Haefner, Tommie Rankin, Greg Burkemo, Gary Werth and Bryan Werth.

Earl Bartholomews Return From Vacation in Europe

Just returned from a month's tour of Europe are Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bartholomew of Yarmouth road. Landing in Amsterdam they proceeded to Switzerland, Italy, Austria, Germany and Belgium.

Taking a cog railway up the Jungfrau to be rewarded by a gorgeous view and a ride on the glacier in a dog sled pulled by a husky was a delightful experience in Switzerland.

The Sixtine Chapel and St. Peter's in Rome and the ruins of Pompeii, where they found that such modern conveniences as heated homes with water piped to them and dispensed through faucets were enjoyed by ancient Pompeians, impressed them in Italy.

In Vienna they attended the beautiful State Opera House for a thrilling performance of Rigoletto. In Germany they enjoyed seeing the cattle brought down from the mountains for the winter. Quite a festival — the cattle were wild flowers and evergreens between their horns and the shepherds were gaily costumed in native dress.

They saw the Robert Hutchison of Birmingham in Wiesbaden and spent four days at the World's Fair. Here they report that the voting machine in the American building were very popular, and that on such was a note from President Eisenhower stating the hope that people over the world would have the chance of casting a secret and personal vote.

Mrs. E. D. Longnecker of North Gilegary road had a buffet lunch for 22 members of DAR on Tuesday.

Here to further their plans for the state conference to be at the Statler in March were the committee chairmen from southern Michigan. Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti, Monroe and Mt. Clemens chapters of the DAR will be hostess chapters at the state conference.

Assisting Mrs. Longnecker were Mrs. Florence Le Ferre of Ann Arbor and Mrs. Milburn E. Rice of Detroit.

Weekend guests at the Robert E. Williams home on Burning Bush were Mr. and Mrs. Bill McGraw and children, Susan, Molly and Mack of Bucyrus, Ohio. The Williams had a dinner party Saturday night at which the Charles O'Neils of Burning Bush and Robert McGregors of Birmingham were guests also.

Guests of the Charles O'Neils this weekend will be Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Bruce of Wayland, Mass. and Mrs. Charles Walton of Wheaton, Ill. The O'Neils are entertaining 75 for brunch on Sunday.

Torch drive organizational meetings were last week in the Village. Chairman of district 3, Mrs. W. Booth of Covington place had a coffee for her workers October 2. Mrs. Philip Copeland of Ardmore drive, chairman of district 4 entertained 18 area members Tuesday. District 5 workers met at coffee Wednesday morning in the home of Mrs. Robert Lovell of Clifton road.

Women of district 1 met Monday October 13 in the home of their chairman, Mrs. Thomas Moorman of Waddington road.

Division chairman is Mrs. J. E. Charbonneau of Yarmouth road.

First Cub Scout pack meeting of the season was Friday at Bloomfield Village school.

Robets inducted were Jeffrey Baldwin, James Barron, Bruce Benedict, Kenneth Cowin, John Dykstra, William Herrman, David Higbee, Robert Kilpatrick and Thomas McKenny.

Others were Jimmy Moore, Michael Morrow, Chris Olsen, David Keave, William Vallin, Bruce Walker, Jim Weirich, Robert Williams and David Zwally.

The Pack committee is headed by Wendell Williams, Franklin Roberts is the cubmaster and James Winner his assistant.

treasurer, Jack Rinehart; program director, John Slater; games chairman, Andrew Holt; sack mother, Mrs. Franklin Roberts.
