'New Faces for New Year'

Celebrating its fifth year, the Birmingham Credit Women's club met last week at Devon Gables for dinner. Installation of officers and Bosses Night, all rolled into one. Guest speaker, Helen Kirwin of London, Ontario, Canada, spoke on the duties of an employee and employer. At a candlelight service past vice president, Beulah Jones, installed the following officers (from left) Jean Carr, president; Beverly Urban, vice president; (Mrs. J.) Bernice Baker, secretary; and Mary Harris, treasurer. Wayne L. Combs, manager of the Birmingham Credit Bureau, introduced the bosses of their representatives in the club. Purpose of the club is to educate with the credit problems of today's business.

Bride Wears Chantilly Lace Over Taffeta

Mary Ellen Kenefick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. Kenefick of Burnley drive, wore a gown of chantilly lace when she entered St. Dunstons Chapel of Christ Church Cranbrook, Saturday, to become Mrs. Wayne W. O'Shaughnessy. The Rev. Lester Dobyns performed the 5 o'clock ceremony in the presence of 75 guests.

The bride's ballerina length gown of chantilly lace over silk taffeta featuring long pointed sleeves. A chantilly lace cap outlined in seed pearls secured her fingertip veil. She carried a bouquet of carnations centered with an orchid.

MRS. CHARLES W. STONE, the honor attendant, wore a pink Parisienne length gown with a full gathered skirt of chiffon and shirred chiffon cummerbund with matching headband. She carried pink and white carnations.

The groom, son of Carl O'Shaughnessy of Keego Harbor, asked James Berry to be best man. Seating the guests were Wayne's brother, Gerald O'Shaughnessy and Donald Bennett.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Kenefick wore a rose lace over taffeta gown with matching accessories.

MRS. WAYNE O'SHAUGHNESSY

FOLLOWING a buffet at the bride's home the newlyweds left on their honeymoon. The couple will make their home at 1625 Graefield road, Birmingham.
